Subject: Jackie - was it the fact that Mark never disclosed to you that...

his father, David Gevisser, is the executor of the estate of American Charles Engelhard, assassinated at age 54 by the Mossad, and laid to rest on March 2nd 1971 at St. Mary's Abby Church, Morris Town, two words, New Jersey, that has you now so “deafeningly silent”.

Or could it be the one seemingly innocuous communication you came across on my one internet directory between Mark and Tefo Mohapi in which Mark “blew off” Tefo all the while acknowledging his father’s connection with ACME Timber, one of The Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies that first attracted Mr. Engelhard who anyone back then as well as now with no more than half a brain, knows was an “open supporter” of the South African Apartheid Regime.

Can you believe now that the botox Mark uses on his face, since what else can explain all that puffiness, is courtesy of the most significant beneficiary of the United States of America’s South African Apartheid Regime aka The 3rd Reich’s Southern Division.

I understand that the organization TRACE that you “work for” is all about “anti-corruption”.

Did you notice in Mark's autobiography of Thabo Mbeki any "disclosures" that you would now consider "material" that are conspicuously absent?

Were you aware that apart from members of the very deep Jewish underground operating throughout the world perhaps as many as half if not more non-Jewish, mostly Roman Catholic, who provided protection to my maternal grandfather Alef-Albert-Al Badash-Ash who didn't have a single Jewish friend in all the 17 odd years he was "based" in South Africa beginning in early 1947, the most trusted were Indian Muslims, specifically Durban, South African Muslims who following Al Ash's assassination then took very good care of both his widow, my grandmother Rachel Ash but most of Al and Rachel Ash's only daughter, my mother Zena.

Do you agree that those raised with no religion which is the vast majority of Lily White Wheaty Eating north Americans are the slowest to "get it".

Ps – I am seated once again next to Adam L. Tucker here at the Java Kai coffee shop on the north east corner of 15th Street and Hwy 101 in downtown Del Mar about 6 seconds or so when traveling at the speed of a Great White Sharp from where a Great White bit down on a retired Veterinarian yesterday morning. My wireless internet connection is via Bruegger's which is right next to a Starbucks coffee shop across the street, due south, and it is very intermittent.

Not to mention how Jewish people including religious orthodox Jewish people are only Jewish when it suits them and nowhere is it more transparent in their failure to take Starbucks' founder and Global Strategist Howard Schultz to task for kowtowing to his Kuwaiti Royal Family business partners who have threatened to destroy his public corporation were he to open a single successful shop in Israel. Do I really need to mention the uniqueness of just3ants.com that to the most intelligent "Money Power" people in the world is not quite as "meaningful" as my first so very basic website, www.footsak.com, at least not yet, but then again if I had continued down the same "vein" with footsak.com, those very same "smart money" people would also all most likely agree I would by now be long dead.

Mossad – By way of deception we wage war!

If you cannot beat them join them!

What are your future plans, at least until Mark gets back, in touch with you,?

I am most likely headed out to our Stone Home to join my French-Canadian wife Marie Dion Gevisser for a late afternoon walk followed by candlelight most healthy gourmet vegetarian meal, although MDG called a little earlier to let me know that the winds have started to pick up in the Cleveland National Forest and without her saying so, she is concerned that given the speed at which I ride the non-forgiving Ducati ST4S just one whiff could have me sliding off, but then again I know a thing or "tTOo" [sic] about not only riding low and of course "going with the flow" but trusting both the engineer who services this very possibly fastest production motorcycle on the road and my riding skills, still no more than a 4 out of 10, at least in my humble opinion, all the while able to focus intently on the task at hand, multi-tasking to boot.

Do you agree with MDG, "The world would be far better off if women were on permanent PMS then they wouldn't put up with any of the bullshit!" as well as "Being non-confrontational is no excuse for bad judgment!"?

What did you think of Marie's words or are you more focused on those most beautiful amber beads she is wearing?

BTW, I believe you have met Dr. John K. Pollard Jr. who again didn't take me up on my offer for dinner last evening, that ended close to 1 AM, as long as he allowed me to videotape our "roundtable" conversation; but in the end what I caught on camera in the inside bar of Il Forniao over at the Del Mar Plaza with me doing both all the "thinking" as well as "camera work" would have the smartest people in the world such Augusto Benito Vargis and his wife Patricia who are both while very educated as well as very smart; i.e. they have not allowed their formal education to interfere with their learning, to not only laugh uncontrollably, the tears would be pouring out of their eyes but there isn't a single "pure bred" Lily White Wheaty Eating American including 29 year old Adam L. Tucker who would "get it" close to as quickly as Augusto and Patricia.

Moreover, Adam was right beside me and understood most of what I was doing, only of course after I had already done it as well as spelled out most of it, although not close to all of it given how despite being very, very, intelligent he was very poorly raised by now 3 generations of "pure bred" Lilly White Wheaty Eating mostly fatso US Americans including Black African Americans such as Devin Standard and Paul Robinson who of course because they were one time athletes and of course their "most colored" genes are far superior to us Lily Whites would "get it" much quicker than most north Americans but still nowhere near as quickly as people like Augusto and Patricia.

Again people like Devin and Paul who I have not yet met but know enough about just by his written word and lack thereof would "get it" quicker than any western schooled Lily White Wheaty Eater but not close to as quickly as their Black and Hispanic brothers and sisters currently in jails here in the US as well as of course their brothers and sisters who have previously been in jail or well on their way to ending in jail.

Not to mention that most people are still not in jail and that includes people like Augusto and Patricia who are very poor as well as more than 1 billion Chinese people who like Augusto and Patricia while not as worldly and educated as these two very in shape mentally and physically Peruvian guides wouldn't take long at all to get not only the "humor" of what I caught on videotape but the "essence" of how easy it is for them not to "sell out" and of course with the knowledge-information-light reaching them in an instant empowering them that much quicker than their oppressors who are taking so very long to "get it", people like Augusto and Patricia as well teenagers like Dr. John K. Pollard's two gang banger grandsons must not resort to violence in first of all getting their basic needs met and of course Dr. JKP Jr. understands this all perfectly well and why not only will he not appear on camera he was so very quick to bail out of jail his one grandson who he let sit behind bars for some two weeks, the very instant Dr. JKP Jr. "caught wind" of me communicating via email with Jose Pollard.

To mention little mention little of the Peoples Republic of China do in fact care a whole lot more about their poor than any other country on the planet, and again I would not only know, I can prove it with a video like this which I should possibly carry with me at all times.

To mention in passing again, it is most of all the speed at which people who have been raised to not only fly free and high from the start but first and foremost to get fit very quickly in life and make it a point of staying fit all their lives, who "get it" and that includes most if not all of our first generation immigrants such as Ulysses, the very excellent General Manager at Il Forniao.

Dear Augusto,

I just put down the phone with Marie who is at our Stone Home deep inside the Cleveland National Forest. My 1/32nd Huron Indian and 31/32nd French-Canadian most beautiful and as you also know most brilliant wife says to tell you because she has been thinking about you, your wife Patricia and your son Carlos:

Augusto should think about the Indian shame in North America and you shouldn't want that for your own people.

They resorted to gambling and drinking and they have only exploited their culture in a commercial way.

Think of all the beautiful cultures that are not based on money, how they are being bought off, and they sell out, and now they know and there is no reason for them to bow down.

Now help us bring some ears to our just3ants.com website, maybe get your fellow very well educated Peruvian Guides to "join the superfishell" [sic].

Something to be gained by sending their kid out there with Jaws.

We can inform them about the real sharks out there; the ones that have been gnawing out there for years.

Here in Del Mar they are waiting for Jaws. The whole world is collapsing and one swimmer died from a shark and now its Hollywood.

Ps – Dr. John K. Pollard Jr. did not take me up on the videotaped dinner offer.

No error with the shark either. I am now headed for a swim. What are you doing for dinner? Would you have a problem if I videotaped our discussion that will center around this last most recent series of emails between myself and Mr. Clark, the proprietor of our Minehead Seacrest café:

Dave I am literally on the fly, running and I don't know if this going to work but I have a tape recorder in my right hand running along the outer cliff here in Del Mar just checking out the surf as quite a decent set comes in. And you may be hearing assuming your ESP is as perfect as God's, you may be hearing the train starting to come by from the north, just making the crossing at 15th street, and we are probably going to meet up right where Pypeetoe smiled goodbye on June 28th of last year to Marie-me at this tree now to my left which Marie is thinking of painting with La Jolla, California far in the background; the train right now about 100 meters north, just passing our studio cliff house which when I am there I thoroughly enjoy, especially when they don't blow the horn and all you hear is the steel on steel sound, now the very tranquil bell sounding, here it comes, the chuchu sound so very loud along with the steel piercing, just a meter to my left,,, but when they do blow the horn it can be a little disturbing, but when you consider the worst of the very disturbances it doesn't touch sides with the mindboggling beauty of God-Nature art 24/7 in front of us, our front garden extending as far as the eye can see, and my God so nice to see the rather large number of very athletic people running by always it seems at the right time.

There are choices we each have to make, constantly and yet isn't it amazing we always have time to make choices apart from when we are born until we can talk properly and of course not when we die although one could easily argue correctly that when one doesn't eat right, exercise regularly one is making the choice of suicide...----...

I have been working for Mark for about two months on projects he is involved with for Trace. if he trusts me it is because I am quiet and unassuming.
Are you sending this to me so that he can get it whilst he is away? (I won't feel offended if you decide not to send, only curious)
Mark will be back at the end of the week.
