Dear Jackie,

I take you at "face value" and will believe until such time as your respond or fail to respond and/or respond with a non-response response that you are both good and intelligent; bearing in mind, competency breeds integrity but the corollary is not necessarily true; moreover, competency does not guarantee integrity but it sure is a good start to stay smart from the start by not letting yourself, once you become conscious and can make the choice between right and wrong, to ever choose wrong and guarantee the start of short-circuits between the neurons in your brain that for good reason take their time "making connections" and after a while as again logic would dictate, it becomes impossible over time for the liar "to" [sic] busy keeping track of their lies from day one to locate; the space between the ears, again for good reason hidden from all sight, inevitably becoming a perfect vacuum, like a vacuum tube or deep space from where no sound can travel, the light bulb effect created by the short-circuits however, very telling to those of us smart-sensitive enough to remain intelligent from day one; and then of course there is God-Light-Knowledge having a grand old time watching it all unfold.

You may have heard of my mother Zena Ash Gevisser who was the first to tell me, "Who do you want to be in business with, an honest fool or clever crook!!"

Neither have you spoken with my cousin about me and have smartly decided to do your own "due diligence"?

Have you checked out www.EmanANDdog.com which in compliance with Quantum Mechanics, reads MOC.godDNAname.www?

BTW, QM which Einstein helped pioneer, what goes forward must work in reverse, also helps me explain how very close Einstein was with his "Mind of God" equation, $E=mc^2$ which reads, "2 c mE" in reverse, in completing his lifelong quest to come up with a

Unified Theory
For the inner workings
Of the universe

And may not have seen such an "obvious" connection because of his "failure" to embrace QM because it lacked the "certainty" of Special-General Relativity that has been proven for more than a century now, one direct experiment after the next.

Not to mention that of course there is no risk of "losing you" by going on to suggest that $E=mc^2$ also explains quite vividly the "Hand of God" much like a "dimmer switch" as the speed of light [c] beginning with the first words we hear from God/G-d, "Let there be light" converts all mass [m] into E [Energy] just as we expect things to evolve.

My math wizard French-Canadian most beautiful wife now says, "Lets keep it that way!" after I told her what bothers most of the crooked at the highest levels of the socio-economic De Beers-Anglo American Cartel dark pyramid, those that are smart that is, is that I am both credible and smart.

Enough for me to also now prove what bothers all those in command and control of the capital and financial markets, gold last trading at US$88.80 is what caused Joe Carroll, a senior oil analyst for Bloomberg News, to "shut down" well before lunchtime on Friday. Click HERE to see all our back and forth.

We are currently at our Stone Home deep in the most magnificent so very quiet Cleveland National Forest and will most likely spend the night here before heading back tomorrow morning to the coast; now about to leave for a sunset walk.

Sleep well.

Gary

Ps – It is possible that by the time you rise tomorrow, and I assume you are in Johannesburg, South Africa, President George W. Bush would have done more than simply suspend the trading of shares in public corporations and decided before faced with a coup-de-tete by U.S. generals outraged by the prospects of reporting to any of those currently vying for President of the United States who increasingly has only the nuclear option remaining to keep each and every tyrant in power in the overwhelming majority of the 190 countries, to simply and immediately shut down all US military bases on the 130 countries and to leave it to the citizens of those countries to decide how best to clean up the extraordinary pollution which of course is all part of the strategy of having “muscle on the ground” to support CIA operatives increasingly exposed given each of their silence on the US Government’s pivotal role in the Diamond Invention, a subject matter you understand already perfectly well, I happen to an expert in, if not the preeminent authority currently living, besides for Mark Gevisser’s father, of course.

Ps I – For your and my safety and those we both care about I am not only copying Israeli Military Intelligence and the Mossad’s headquarters in Washington DC but others very closely aligned throughout the world that Steven Spielberg in his 2005 epic movie MUNIch “touched on”, and whose modern day loyalty to the Jewish people can be traced to the French Resistance whose membership included mostly Roman Catholics with strong ties to the Masons, a very good organization like all the major religions that has been used and abused by the ruling elite with the world’s totally corrupt clergy who are all just gun-power mad, but not all that smart, certainly they haven’t outsmarted me who I daresay has already achieved “critical mass” and I am not yet dead, have both sets of eyes, despite Adam L. Tucker dreaming the night before last which he says kept him up all night that I lost my one eye; bearing in mind he was probably just so disgusted throwing up thinking of the IT with his left or right eye, not sure what our Superior Being with his hand on the “dimmer switch” continues to screw with, having sex with the so bowlegged Cow.

The more we know about each other the less likely we are to go to war with one another; bearing in mind, the DAAC with direct access to all the world’s intelligence services know everything there is to know about everyone; the Mossad, however, the least infiltrated given the measures Ben Gurion began instituting immediately following the debacle of Operation Suzannah in the summer of 1954 when an Israeli senior military officer in charge of the entire covert operation “turned”, most likely before the operation began, which of course should have you thinking about the possibility that your boss, Mark Gevisser, is one of the “good guys”, having led a “double life” all his adult life in order to expose people like Thabo Mbeki, but I doubt it very much; in fact you have my word that Mark Gevisser is rotten to the core, no different to his father.

Hi Gary

Just had a look at all these emails very quickly as it is late. Am very interested and also had a quick look at 3ants.com
But am tired so can't think of anything decent to reply.

I will respond after a proper read.
