Hello Rob,

In the late 1980's my uncle Pete Grande and his partner Albert Halimi started a plastic bag manufacturing company called Command Packaging (commandpackaging.com & restaurantbags.com). After leveraging all of their available assets they found themselves in desperate need of start up capital. Using his familial connections in Iran, Albert was put in contact with a South African man that was equally in interested in "helping" Pete and Albert with their financial deficiency.

As a young man all I knew of the business transaction was the trips that my aunt and uncle made to South Africa and the gifts that they brought back with them making the trip appear to be more of a vacation than anything else. I later learned of my uncle's silent business partner in South Africa and when I inquired about the arrangement, my uncle told me that there was no formal partnership documented, just a hand shake and a suitcase with US$2 million that afforded their much needed seed capital.

The partner was "silent" because South Africa was under the control of the Apartheid regime which as you are probably aware was an extremely racist government supported by some 3 million whites controlling some 20 million blacks which were paid slave wages as the valuable natural resources of South Africa were being stolen out from under them. Taking out of South Africa was illegal which is why the partnership was never formalized, none-the-less, this did not stop my uncle and his official partner from laundering the blood money through their business and paying back the US$2 million and then sum [sic].

To give you an idea of the life for the blacks under the Apartheid regime and the connection with the United States government; The CIA and the British Secret Service supported Dr. Wouter Basson aka 'Dr Death' of South Africa and his experiments to design biological warfare that would specifically target blacks; using kidnapped black South Africans as the test subjects.

<http://news.bbc.co.uk/2/hi/africa/1926117.stm>

Late last year, I sent an email to my family, including my money laundering aunt and uncle, expressing my disapproval and spelling out much like I have for you, exactly what I knew of this Federal and moral crime and made sure that the FBI received a copy.

As you can imagine my family was all but happy to have me air our "family secrets", and within a few days, I received an email from my ex-wife telling me that my family was trying to get me arrested. It didn't take long for me to find out that my mother, the sister of the money laundering aunt Wendy, and co-conspirator sent me the following email:

Pete was pissed and wanted to see what his rights were for being harassed and false information you were writing. I want to get together wth you! They are very hurt that you turned on them the way you did. They feel they have been there for you and dont know what you want or need from them? Or any of us?

Julia said something about my family trying to get me arrested. do you know anything about this?

What you should know is that my mother NEVER spoke with my ex-wife without me and in fact made it very clear that she did not like her. What I found particularly fascinating was my mothers attempt to intimidate me as well as incriminate me by implying that I was using this information to blackmail them, which could not have been further from the truth.

Of course I had zero concern of being arrested because any investigation into me would have resulted in the exposure of the money laundering which was obviously not in their best interests.

Currency (i.e. paper money) has serial numbers and can be traced; so in order for money to be taken out of South Africa or any country for that matter, one needs to use a currency that is universally valued, untraceable and leaves no money trail. Have you heard of Diamond Currency?

How far down the rabbit hole are you willing to go?

Coincidentally, and I don't believe in coincidences, I met a Jewish South African name Gary S. Gevisser back in 2001 while doing computer consulting work. Little did I know that Gary's uncle David Gevisser is the current executor of the estate for Charles Engelhard Jr. placing him in charge of controlling shares of Engelhard Minerals and Chemicals whom you may or may not know worked very closely with Harry Oppenheimer of De Beers Anglo-American (aka "Diamonds are forever.") during the Apartheid, to steal the gold and platinum from South Africa on the backs of slave labor, and smuggled out of the country as art work and be melted down into gold and platinum bullion.

Because of Gary Gevisser's familial relation, he was given a senior trusted position within the De Beers organization De Beers on 47th street New York with a diamond wholesale in New York called Codiam Inc. It was here in the early 1980s that Gary Gevisser attended private meetings conducted between Stephen Cohen of Codiam Inc. and Martin Rapaport of THE RAPAPORT REPORT; a cut wholesale diamond pricing publication with international circulation. In these meetings Stephen Cohen would provide Martin Rapaport with prices to be published in the Rapaport Report. The Sherman Act and all of our anti-trust laws are geared to protect our "free" market from a monopolist. DeBeers has long been known as a diamond monopolist but despite this, our US Justice Department has supposedly been unable to prosecute because of jurisdiction, sighting that the actual price fixing occurs at the DeBeers HQ on foreign soil (London & South Africa) and therefore are untouchable from the standpoint of stopping them.

In light of Eliot Spitzer's 'client #9' issues you probably wouldn't be too surprised to find that Gary S. Gevisser contacted Eliot Spitzer Esq. in 2004 while Mr. Spitzer was the New York State Attorney General; had phone conversations with his office staff and sent them numerous emails with no action or investigation.

You should read the two chapters referenced below from the DIAMOND INVENTION
<http://www.edwardjayepstein.com/diamond/prologue.htm>

Ch9 – Diamonds for Hitler

This chapter exposes previously classified documents made available from the Freedom of Information Act, which states that DeBeers was supplying industrial diamonds to support Hitler's wartime production.

Ch18 – The American Conspiracy

This Chapter explores the relationship with DeBeers and the United States government and includes US Justice Department accounts of contributions to both political parties and a meeting in New York between President Elect John F Kennedy and Harry Oppenheimer.

When I returned from a late morning walk, I found a business card at my front door from a FBI Special Agent, with a note written on the back:

"Adam, PLEASE CALL"

Curious that they would make a special trip to my residence as opposed to calling me as I now have no doubt that they have much more than my cell phone number.

I have not heard back from the FBI Special Agent, despite leaving a voice message for him at 12:57pm PST, but I would not be surprised to receive another personal visit from this special agent tomorrow since it appears they would prefer to communicate with more than their choice of words.

There is one more bit of information that is important for you to be aware of; Gary Gevisser's familial history has strong roots in the establishment and survival of Israel, including his maternal great grandmother that was close childhood friends with David Ben-Gurion founder of the Hagannah (Jewish Underground), and the first Prime Minister of Israel. Gary maintains that he is neither an official or unofficial member of any of Israel's intelligence gathering agencies although he is Israeli Special Forces trained.

Regards,
Adam

P.S. Do you think the FBI wants to talk about the investigation into my uncles money laundering or www.just3ants.com?

Hello Adam,

Not to my knowledge. The FBI works independently from Military.com

We are an information resource and entertainment venue (among other things) dedicated to the service of the US Military.

Can you share with me what happened?

Respectfully,

-Rob

Hi Rob,

Could my presence on military.com have anything to do with FBI Special Agent that visited me today?

Hello Adam,

I've received a copy of your email, and I will be addressing this issue.

As I look at your email, I only see a link to a discussion thread and a copy of a private message. Can you expand a little more about what's going on and your part in the matter. Once we clear that up, I may be able to help decipher the issue at hand.

Respectfully,
