Subject: KING CORN - FW: memorable photos of an astounding Chinese wedding prologue.

John,

Again, are you serious or delirious?

?You thought we're so schuutpid?

You're SHHTUPID!!

Now, of course, more disgusting than you doctors of bs science are the medical doctors, beginning here in the United States, who have been so very silent as they and their Trust-Hush-Fund kids "coin it".

Don't you just love this 2500 year old bronze sculpture of Chinese money growing on trees as you see your utterly wasteful life for what it is, just consuming when not helping wage war on the young and defenseless of the world, starting out of course with the Chinese, who have always been enemy number one going back quite away of those opposed to the merit system that breeds entrepreneurialism and free market economies; something you have always prided yourself on, thinking you know so much about but only enough to be dangerous mostly to yourself, as you can now fully imagine if not see clearly.

Do you recall your ancestors complaining about the United States Government's brutal invasion of China in 1900 that of course the United States Government and the remaining 8 Allied nations feel is not worth talking about but rather to focus on China's "blemishes" that has the United States Government leading the charge as they did the American led 8 Allied Invasion of China in 1900, and in all 8 of them ridiculing so loudly the Chinese doesn't mean that the loudest have right on their side, not even close.

And just like you are so deafeningly silent on the important subjects of the day so is the US Government and its Allies increasingly waking up, again just like you, hence your silence that you-them no longer have the biggest gun.

In other words, I believe it is a fair conclusion that the deafeningly silent is represented by the deafeningly silent US government.

Moreover, you cannot even mouth "f... you" given how again you are with each tick of the clock not quite sure the US out-of-control military-industrial-complex will continue to have the support of the rank and file doing the heavy lifting beginning with our service people given how well informed they are, which of course explains a number of things beginning with why you so very quickly bailed your gang-banger grandson Eddie Pollard out of jail once I started communicating with him and explaining how much the "ruling elite" depend on him to "steal illegally" as they continue to perfect "stealing legally" and when the poor fighting for scraps do the dumbest thing of all and resort to violence which is of course your favorite weapon as you also supply their weapons, you have thought yourselves so smart, but again that is in the past.

The future is bright for those us who pride ourselves on staying smart from the start and not lying, stealing and cheating which then allows our formal education to interfere with our learning.

Go check the mirror, and then tell me what you see and then write down your "value system" and begin by explaining why you are such a strong advocate of those who don't lie, steal or cheat and therefore not only love what they do but all those they meet until finding out otherwise that there is nothing to speak of, no trust and no respect which combine to make "love", beneath their skin and bones, just a heartless pump, no soul.

Why bother you must surely be asking with separating the dumbest of the dumb Lily White Wheaty Eaters from the fatsos whose thighs could be used to chaffe down wood objects when US Americans can't afford the price of electricity when having to pay "fair market value".

BTW, whoever can think of a better explanation of the true meaning of separating the wheat from the chaffe, please email us your suggestions.

All those who have usurped their limited authority, young and old, using all forms of distraction, increasingly down to relying on their gift of the gab that the "deafening silences" talking volumes keep increasingly quiet with each tick of the clock, now have to contend with a little known documentary-movie, King Corn, that really does a great job in explaining most of all that it is you idiots' "sweet tooth" that contributes possibly the most in addition to your lying through your teeth to all your brain damage that of course is not lost totally on the not so very stupid United States Government whose out-of-control military-industrial-complex has and continues to "call the shots", YET to respond to that ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report that cannot be "wished away", let alone think you wimps' brute military dictatorship can buy off both the Mossad and IMI to rescind such an ingenious report that spells out in one CLEAR, SHORT sentence the doom of the U.S. De Beers-Dollar, along with all those economies who have benefited for the past 100 years by the brutality of the De Beers controlled 3 Branches of the United States Government.

Side Note to Adam L. Tucker – Place on the homepage of just3ants.com this ongoing dialogue between myself and Ian Cheney, the “co-lead actor” in King Corn which should get not only best documentary of all time, best movie of all time, most credible actors of all time, the funniest movie of all time, and if not, then the funniest of serious of seriously important subjects, apart from of course the Diamond Invention, that “feeds into” King Corn like only the most ingenious designer of all time could have imagined.

Don't you just love and adore this most important thought-provoking documentary, King Corn produced by Aaron Woolf that has friends, Ian Cheney and Curt Ellis move back to America's Corn Belt to plan an acre of the nation's most-grown and most-subsidized grain in an attempt to follow their crop into the U.S. food supply. What they discover about genetically modified seeds, powerful herbicides and the realities of modern farming calls into question government subsidies, our fast-food lifestyle and the quality of our food.

And even you can understand the increasing deafening silence of such talkative people, mostly fatsos and the occasional thin-as-a-rake anorexic who help “prove the rule” all have in common this ability to eat and eat and eat, and get sicker and sicker and sicker and then God/G-d grants you imbeciles with “long life” to have to live each and every day in your disgustingly filthy bodies whose brain is no longer muscle but fatso tissue increasingly less able to exercise and like The IT not even able to even enter again the most awesomely refreshing salt water ocean for the fear that this pathetically incompetent former pathologist will lose his eyesight “al-to-get-her” [sic]; and of course you also derive great satisfaction when hearing about G-d's vengeance not long after Marie Dion Gevisser sent him this “ouch” email below:

<http://www.nextraterrestrial.com/pdf/Time%20with%20friends.htm>

The more we know about the disgustingly filthy rich the likely the hard working, in shape physically and mentally poor will smarten up and not go to war with anyone let alone fight it out amongst themselves to the death, just so that you can all live that much longer in your own chosen filth.

Not to mention, since The IT is so backwards he says he cannot read emails which he is the only one believing anymore, and why shouldn't I-we have you make good use of your time and when not forwarding this communiqué to your chicklit list suggest his bitch, The Cow read them as we know she does as well.

So easy these days to tell who is and who isn't telling the truth and why those that dont choose to be either deafeningly silent and/or write stuff to deflect.

What a great time to be alive, fit and well and the worst of times for those on my "$ hit list" [sic] looking forward to meeting our Maker, wouldn't you agree?

And of course this brain numbing, again, first and foremost of the American public, yet to embrace the metric system, took place in the early 1970s when you will recall the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel orchestrated, so brilliantly, the total elimination of the price mechanism as the heavily corrupt, maniacal US Government officially went off the Gold Standard on August 15th, 1971, some 5 odd months following the Mossad's assassination of the American kingpin Charles W. Engelhard on March 2nd 1971, and this mafia of mafia don's funeral too place at not at Jewish synagogue as the vehemently anti-Semitic victors of World Oil Wars II and I would have preferred the brain dead westerners believe given how so very poorly schooled you all are under the bs Bell Shaped curve educational which has the most average imbeciles attending brain dead universities like MIT, rising to the top, but rather at St. Mary's Abby Church, Morris Town, two words, New Jersey and the Mossad smart enough to insist that in attendance were none other than the "honorable" Senator Ted Kennedy, former President Lyndon Johnson and Vice President Humphrey representing nothing other than big government fascism.

What is your skin in the game?

Ps – You are just going to love not only what my so very easy to get along with French-Canadian wife will be communicating to her X-husband the IT shortly, once she is off the phone with her 19 year old daughter who celebrates her birthday today that will make you of course feel so much better about yourself at least for the moment which is of course what most of you on my email list care about when not "deflecting".

And of course Marie Dion Gevisser can also be so very "pleasing" just so long as you have a value system and are willing to put it down in black and white and then be willing to be tested, which we know you are not, despite all your education and have so much to say on every subject under the sun, at least that is until we suggest that you be willing to go on record and participate in that round table discussion we have been offering you ever since you failed to provide the scientific data that you and idiots like you say "proves women are inferior in the science and math" which is your way of simply saying that women are inferior in logical thought processing which you know both my F-C wife and I can prove beyond a shadow of a doubt is not only totally untrue and you know it, hence your deafening silence but even if you were able to get all you corrupt scientists to weigh in on your side, both my wife and I would not only "eat you miserable good for nothing bastards alive" but because you are mostly all so disgustingly unhealthy, lacking absolutely no stamina, living to eat which is all that you excel at, you would collapse under your weight.

Let me know if I you think I have left anything out.

Most people looking at this devastation most likely won't think back to what was going on in China when this church was built some hundred years ago, around the time of the American led 8 Allied Nations invasion of China in 1900 when after stealing, murdering, etc etc, leaving nothing that wasn't nailed to the ground, including all the Chinese gold that had been harvested, and doubtful the marauding godless invaders left the gold necklaces around the women's lifeless heads, there was the westerners' so heavily polluted religion.

Wedding Photo Shoot - A Day To Remember

Captured moments from the major quake in Si Chuan

It was a day to remember...

Their Wedding shoot.

At the famous 100-year-old Church of the Annunciation in Pengzhou, China.

Morning May 12, photographer Wang went about preparing to shoot wedding pictures for a young couple, this was the test shot before the shoot...

Pengzhou is located in the Sichuan province. It was morning May 12, 2008.

And then it happened.... the earth quake! 7.8 on the Richter scale.

Bricks fall from the building during the earthquake, which turned Wang from a wedding photographer into a journalist.

'Thank God we were only shooting from outside the church!' remarked a helper.

The stunned couple huddles together at the church ground during initial tremors.

'I shouted to people, 'Run! Run!'" said photographer Wang Qiang.
'The ground shook and we couldn't see anything in the dust.'

As the dust began to clear, the true extent of damage was only beginning to appear...

A cracked facade was all that remained of the 100-year-old Church of the Annunciation after the quake. Most of the church 'collapsed in 10 seconds,' said Wang, who lives in Chengdu, capital of hard-hit Sichuan province.

Soon after the quake, the people at the seminary set out for a nearby village, but residents warned them the route was blocked. 'We could still hear landslides,' Wang wrote in an online account of the disaster. So they stayed overnight in a tent and made it to the village the next day, thanks to help from a truck driver.

A scarf from a wedding dress lies forgotten in front of the seminary.
Wang said he thought the catastrophe would strengthen the bonds of the couples who were there that day: 'Having gone through a life-and-death test, they surely will clasp hands and grow old together.'

No one was harmed at the above location.

They'll sure have a Wild story to tell there Children!
