Subject: BALL OF THE PARTY - lude - Brazilian - How are you feeling?

Max,

Can you replace your email address with your legal counsel who may help you recall how you, a class action litigator of the year, was it 1998, got around to give me your email address?

Have you seen the empirical data that draws a correlation between dementia and obesity? What is your body fat percentage?

Furthermore, what is it that you think your legal counsel who I assume are not your partners in your prestigious law firm also don't understand about The Diamond Invention written by investigative reporter Edward Jay Epstein who continues to write editorials for De Beers' Wall Street Journal?

I plan to give a talk soon to a group of young US service people just in the last 24 hours finding out their poor pay maintains the "economic draft" given how they don't have sufficient "disposable income" to hang around fancy bars and restaurants to hear people such as yourself laugh your heads off at nonsense talkers like former Fed. Chairman Alan Greenspan who you recall wrote that very brilliant and most truthful essay in 1966, GOLD AND ECONOMIC FREEDOM, making again the most brilliant arguments against going off the Gold Standard and then 5 years later, on August 15th, 1971, to be very precise, the De Beers-US government did exactly that, and then as a reward for keeping his big mouth shut Mr. Greenspan who ended up shtuping NBC White House reporter Andrea Walters, got the top post as Chairman of the Board of the DeBeers-US Federal Reserve who holds "in trust" what little remains of the gold stolen from the hard working poor throughout the world?

Did you forget who my Royal Mater-Mother's very close and most "lucky" friend is?

Have you yet subpoenaed David Gevisser as well as his much more talkative son Mark Gevisser for deposition?

Why not say hello to Jackie Downs, Mark's assistant continuing to do her research along with the rest of the folks who may not necessarily be as interested in the truth as say me, but very possibly on average more so than you.

I assume you know how to hit the "reply to all" button on your email and if not, don't fret, just reply to me, and I will go to the bother.

Of all the things you could have written me why this and why now?

Have you yet filled out the survey at just3ants.com?

Would you like to join my French-Canadian wife and me for dinner this evening and assuming MDG objects to the video being turned on, which is highly likely, I could just keep the audio going underneath the table as well?

Come to think of it, if you give me enough of a heads up I could not only invite FBI Special Agent Curran Thomerson along but the entire Ducati motorcycle club of San Diego.

Do you ride?

Would you say it is an Egged bus you see in the background to the one photo below showing me in the red and white Kibbutz hat looking out over a minefield in the Golan Heights back in January 1968, some 7 odd months after my Royal Mater became the first "citizen" to visit the captured territories of the Sinai and you must surely recall reading in her memoirs, "Life Story of Zena", very craftily written and broadcast for the first time on October 9th, 2001 on what would have been the 53rd wedding anniversary of Zena Rosland Ash of the House of Badash to my father Bernie Gevisser, the following:

From the earliest days of 1949, she [Zena] visited Israel two and three times a year writing reports for different publications.

Have you checked with the Mossad as well as Israeli Military Intelligence to have them help you better understand their ingenious Military Report all designed to flush out people such as you and Alan Greenspan and Co.?

Gary

Ps – I assume you are no gay and are married. Does your spouse whether it be a male or female, I could care less, find Zena’s delivery in her THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING A WOMAN [click hyperlink above the words, “Life story of Zena”] uplifting as well as the content?

In other words, when you wear a kilt do you check to see also whether your slip is showing before you can consider yourself the ball of the party?

BTW I just got back from both a haircut and shave down at the local barber shop in Solana Beach, just south of the intersection of highway 101 and Loma Sante Fe. Were I not mostly meditating I mostly likely would have brought up whether they have considered the economics of introducing Brazilian cuts, what do you think?

Phillippe –

Boa Dia, I apologize for not getting you my Brazilian lady friend's email address sooner; we met on a free online dating website which had us communicating through the site instead of direct emails which is why I took so long to get her direct email address.

XXXX@hotmail.com

Her name is X, and she came here almost 3 years ago in search of a different life having lived in an environment which she described as people having to work all the time just to survive; which you would agree functions quite well as a distraction from questioning the status quo which fosters such an environment.

Her English is very poor although she is trying, so when we met earlier this week, we found ourselves communicating in a mix of Spanish-Portuguese-English which was quite entertaining to the people around us.

Fortunately for her she is here on a travel visa and has retained her Brazilian citizenship; I did my best to explain just3ants and why she has found herself here in the United States while the rest of her Brazil is forced to fight amongst the scraps. She comes from an affluent family although I don't know what that translates into in relation to the wealth here in the United States amongst the top 1% that according the 2000 census represents 40% of the wealth in the good ol' US of A.

What do you make of me, someone willing to stand tall, confronting both my family and now anyone that stands in the way of sharing the truth, having to struggle and most likely being evicted this month despite devoting most of my time to sharing the Knowledge-Information-Light that Gary has shared with me. This dynamic that puts me at the bottom of the socio-economic ladder with the top made up of those that have learned to steal legally.

Despite having relatively no material possession and nothing aside of my cats that I would care about losing; I am completely free, which is not something that most people can say. Aside of my cats all that I have of value is in my mind which cannot be taken away no matter what economic conditions I am in. And should G-d decide that it is my time, I feel proud of my legacy of action that I have lived... it is because of this that I have no fear, which in addition to the knowledge share, has been Gary's greatest gift to me.

It's time for me to get some exercise and enjoy this most beautiful day!

The Serfs UP! ~ Neil Gevisser
