Mr. Boyd,

I lied again.

Side note to Tzipi Livni, Israel's Foreign Minister and publicly

acknowledged member of Mossad: Scroll through all the distractions including the "pickup" that is needed here at our rather tidy and almost spotlessly clean gallery-studio cliff house perched atop the bluffs of heavily diamond invention real estate and city council corrupt Del Mar until you get to today's one headline news item in the Wall Street Journal, "Class-Action Law Firm Close to a Settlement" and when you first read the name Melvyn Weiss below the pencil like drawing of his very ugly image think about the coincidence of this very crooked American lawyer-liar working alongside my immediate family's very close friend Deborah "I am aggressive" Sturman Esquire when the two of them extracted out of the remnants of the De Beers Nazi Military Machine some US$4 billion or so in "slave wages" that hadn't been paid to both those Jewish victims who later got exterminated as well as those who survived", and my highly secretive Anglicized Jewish Royal Mater-Mother Zena first meeting with Deborah in a synagogue in Cologne Germany when, now mid-40s Deborah, was still a teenager, playing the French Horn for the Cologne Philharmonic; such a "chance meeting" being the catalyst in this utterly nonsense, but so very important distracting multi-billion worthless-fictitious DeBeers Dollar settlement that is yet another extraordinary black eye for Jewish people, religious and irreligious throughout the world; apart from of course those of us who understand perfectly well the original motto of the Mossad, "By way of deception we wage war!"; not to mention the Mossad deciding at this point to leave their "last word" to the "all tell" ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report that remains only available for public viewing on my one website, just3ants.com.

Mr. Boyd, the more you lie the easier it becomes for you to believe yourself!" or if you prefer, the shorter alternative offered by my very easily bored with mediocrity French-Canadian wife, "... the easier it is to believe yourself".

There is a reason why those who lack stamina which are those mostly whose parents did everything for them, taking away their curiosity because they simply found it easier to do things themselves rather than be disappointed in the shoddy workmanship of their offspring which they then considered a poor reflection of themselves only because such illogical, nonsensical, imbecile parents consider themselves godly, simply incapable of sufficiently high intellectual thought process to figure out that there must surely be some higher intelligence more than themselves, the idiots to believe in the first place that they would know what is best to allow their offspring to fly free and high from the earliest of age as in depriving their offspring to bend down, feel their muscles, their weight constantly, the "picking up", the laundry, the making of the meals, the sweeping etc etc becomes "first nature" not "second nature"; instead once losing "initiative" the good-for-nothing but "small talk" offspring also figure out quickly how such poor mental and physical behavior is exactly not only how to get ahead in this world by failing but to winning both the attention and affection of their co-dependent parent, leading to each successive generation of imbeciles getting that much more idiotic; but rather fun for the rest of us to watch and even easier to deal with once you of course figure out not only is there a higher authority but this game of life is rather interesting as well as rewarding especially as it gets played out in "real time".

Allow me, if you don't mind, as well as have the time to listen to me tell you about Stan House as you also help increase the circle of those dependent upon my insight and analysis of the important events of the day, yet another 24 hours has passed by since the previous 24 years and I am still not only alive, slowly getting back to being rather fit ever since I got this deep cut in my left baby finger when riding into a barbed wire fence just a half hour after I left our stone home nestled in gently sloping hill deep inside the Cleveland National Forest about a 30 minute ride on the superfast Ducati ST4S which I have been riding most of today, starting out following my so very sexy F-C wife to oil painting art class with master painter-teacher Sebastian Capella where I got to tape for about a half hour before running out of disk space on our one hard disk drive Sony video recorder, when Marie Dion Gevisser warned me, "If you are going to fall make sure you fall into bushes which I was fully aware of before losing control of my super duper second hand heavily crashed Cannondale mountain bike but in order to get the relatively soft landing when traveling at between 30 and 40 kilometers per hour I first had to clear this barbed wire fence and despite still being relatively athletic and yes the thought did cross my mind of pushing off the pedals and clearing the 4 foot heavily rusted barbed wire fence in the split seconds before my baby left finger sticking out of the fingerless bike gloves became the first body part to serve as a brake given how I never even got to squeeze either the front or back most excellent disk brakes were it not for the fact that before I go beyond pushing off much like I would have done when jumping over barrels on ice I was already fully airborne after my front wheel hit this dam stubborn rock that appeared out of nowhere.

I just ran into Stan House who you might know as well as me who you say is not only ugly but about to be evicted. Stan, I would say is in his mid sixties but looks much younger and I daresay much more handsome than you whose photograph I have not seen – please, again, send me your best photo. Stan's wife is equally good looking as equally "smart as a whip", both of them laughing their heads off when I retold them the story of Dr. John K. Pollard yet to send us that so very important scientific study that says women are inferior in the science and math to men given how us smart people know for an absolute fact such a totally nonsense study does not exist which still doesn't prevent people like MIT and Cornell University alumnus Dr. JKP Jr from espousing such a study when doing nothing more than filling up things like "pregnant pauses".

Stan whose email address is sthouse@sbcglobal.net might not like for me to broadcast his name as well as email address all over the internet but then again he might since he did hand me his very easy to read business card; and again he seemed very much "on top of his game" just like his teacher wife; both fed up with all the bs beginning with how contrived is the poor allocation of resources beginning with the sharing of knowledge-information-light-rEVOLUTION.

A good number of us "intelligence trained" understand perfectly well that there is no shortage of people who can chew gum at the same time they place together a whole bunch of letters to make sounds and even write sense on occasion so long as it suits their "agenda".

You keep forgetting and why I spare no effort in reminding you of that ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report that may still have you saying like most who have allowed their formal education like Dr. JKP, the IT, Michael Awerbuch and Co. to interfere with their learning, "So what?" as in "What's the upshot?" as in "So what?" as in "What's the upshot" since the same idiots would argue nothing has changed since I, and I alone, began broadcasting such a most paralyzing report that were Israeli Military Intelligence as well as the Mossad to have said that they had no "hand in it" would have anyone with the least amount of common sense concluding that both IMI as well as the Mossad had to have produced such a report given how it would require the "brain trust" of the most intelligent people in the entire world to "pull together", given its most startling truth; then again both IMI as well as the Mossad have in fact vetted this Military Report of all time.

After now going very quiet, start feeling like a chicken with its head cut off and so please don't relax for a single moment as those raised under the Bell Shaped curve educational system, that has the most average rising to the top who after hearing such a brain numbing report, short, clear, easy to understand as seeing the naked body of one most beautiful French-Canadian woman with a smile to die for, very possibly the most perfect female body ever that has its owner when looking in the mirror as she did the other evening after taking her shower commenting, "Not bad", saying repeatedly to themselves just like you would expect from the most brainwashed, "So what?" followed by, "What's the upshot?"

Have you ever heard the expression, "Sow rubber needles on to a brick wall?"

So what that the 3 Branches of the US Government have allowed the most brutal monopolist of all time to engineer-manufacture-distribute their own unlimited supply of untraceable, lightweight and never inventoried diamond currency price fixed at more than a barrel of oil for more than a century and during those times when not supplying and resupplying all warring parties with their much needed industrial diamonds to make precision tooling to mass produce weapons of war are buying up the world's precious resources including water rights, land in the best vacation spots in the world and so on and so forth?

Ever thought what was wrong with not exactly perfect Aryan looking Hitler demanding "perfection" beginning with the perfect Aryan race, blonde hair, blue eyes, the more inbred the better, just like The IT?

So what if Al Quaida don't launch a single attack on a single sitting duck constantly moving oil field such as an oil supertanker immediately following the Beijing Olympic Games which is how the most ingenious military report of all time begins?

So what if Shaun Tomson while signing his "feel good" book this coming June 5th at the Flower Hill Mall in Solana Beach doesn't give his opinion on anything I write since it might interfere with the sales of his book that contributes to his ability to feed and clothe himself as well as his wife Carla?

So what if Shawn Tomson's other friends continue to keep his company letting him know that they are "there for him" does it mean that Shaun and/or his "fair weather friends" most of whom I know rather well, at least as well as Shaun who was one of the better economics students at the University of Natal-Kwazulu South Africa back in 1976 at the time of the Soweto Riots when Tefo Mohapi's mother, Joyce Mohapi was arrested, spending one night in jail before being co-opted-corrupted by the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel who granted her a De Beers bursary just like Bill "Trading with the enemy Rich" Clinton got his De Beers-Rhodes Scholarship, are on the side of light?

Next to us Lily White Wheaty Eating Gentile and Jewish Americans Lily White Wheaty Eating Jewish South Africans are the dumbest, period.

I have both a battle plan as well as economic plan that could result in world peace well within 24 hours, in fact were the Israel Defense Force who have a copy of such an easy to understand, CLEAR, SHORT sentences "plan of action" that contains both a timeline as well as the exact verbiage to be used when communicating with the Commander In Chief of all United States Armed Forces, to go ahead immediately upon receipt of this communication and begin executing such a "bullet proof" game plan that of course begins with military action of an order never in the history of the world seen before given how the State of Israel has never previously not only been in a position of such military power but those made of the "right stuff" know best how to use such a military with superior and overwhelming force second only to the Peoples Republic of Communist China, world peace could in fact be achieved in well under 12 hours, which assumes only that Ami Ayalon has already in position Israel's most brutal Maritime Special Forces, Flotilla 13 commandos and right behind them all the remaining elite Special Forces unit including of course the non-Jewish Druze Special Forces, all such Special Forces backed up by both the brutal Israel Air Force and Navy, all knowing perfectly well that in the intervening period between the summer 2006 war with mostly Hezbollah Special Op commandos mimicking very brilliantly Israeli Special Forces, Israel's regular army has been "brought up to speed", at least as good, relatively speaking, than they were on the eve of the June 1967 Arab-Israeli 6 Day War when Menachem Begin approached David Ben Gurion to once again lead the IDF into battle; and of course you would know that while honored by such a request coming from his nemesis, Ben Gurion turned down such a request given how he knew that his best field commander Yitzchak Rabin would execute the "game plan" that had been vetted by Ben Gurion and Co., no different to the outbreak of Israel's War of Independence 1947-1949 that was in the works going back to at least September 1941 when my granddad Al Ash had his name changed from Alef Badash to Al Ash.

It is rather important that my maternal grandfather whose mother Nechie Badash a close confidant of Ben Gurion as well as an early resident of Tel-Aviv who only returned from Tel-Aviv, Israel to England in 1929 when my mother was born, the same year that my paternal grandfather Israel Issy Gevisser visited with his sister Pessiah and her family in Vilnius, Lithuania, decided "abruptly" to immigrate to South Africa in late 1947 rather than Israel; in fact there is no record of Al Ash ever once visiting Israel or showing any inclination to travel anywhere since arriving in South Africa in late 1947 when Israel's most brutal first war of survival began, apart from to those countries surrounding South Africa where the 3rd Reich's Southern Division had settled, such as Zambia and Mozambique.

I am sitting in a shaded area in a rather large mall in Mission Valley San Diego having exchanged a pair of silver sandals at Jimmy Choo that I purchased for my F-C wife this weekend.

A San Diego Police Department helicopter has been flying above now for about half an hour announcing over its speaker system,

"We are Looking for a male wearing a black t-shirt and black pants..."

I bet those police officers thinking about using possibly lethal force were they to apprehend such an individual, not thinking for one moment about the things going through your mind, including the fact that De Beers given how they have made such a total mockery of the monetary system, set the price of not only the bullets that could end up being discharged but the cost of hospitalization at say the corrupt Sharp Memorial Hospital San Diego that continued to keep paying the crook pathologist Dr. John BIG BEN Stewart MD aka The IT until such time as they figured too much attention was being given to his very poor eyesight on my websites that during "discovery" would inevitably be revealed making the payouts they and their insurance carrier had forked out in previous medical malpractice lawsuits, pale in comparison.

Now let's come back to Melvin Weiss who the WSJ just earlier announced has got sentenced to 30 months in prison that before remembering who is writing this heavily broadcasted communiqué had you thinking, "I wonder who his lawyer was?"

Not to mention the next headline in the Wall Street Journal reads:

Court Rules on Money Laundering

The Supreme Court ruled against the government in two money-laundering cases, making it more difficult for prosecutors to use an important weapon in the war on drugs and organized crime.

To mention little of what all this is going to mean to US service people including those such as Sgt. Matthis Chiroux who has decided now to go AWOL [Absent Without Leave] realizing that when marching on Washington DC, they would be best served wearing one of our THE MEEK WITH TEETH SHALL INHERIT THE EARTH t-shirts.

To mention in passing that the likes of Sgt. Chiroux have yet to get their arms around how they are so laughed at when both wearing a US military uniform as well as when deciding to go AWOL not only by each and everyone highlighted on the just3ants.com "$ hit list" [sic] but each one of their Trust-Hush-Fund kids who have yet to have their disgusting names added to this one-of-a-kind FOOLS NAMES, FOOLS FACES IN PUBLIC PLACES.

Side note to Adam L. Tucker: Place Michael Awerbuch's name on the list; and see if someone can convince him to send us his best photo. Also the "LLOOKING GOOD" communiqué to you that I sent out yesterday but only left my "outbox" this morning, should also be on the homepage of just3ants.com; maybe under a title, "Gary's Top pick of the day!". And don't forget to keep sending me updates of just3ants.com's new look.

So how very boring do you think it was for my F-C wife to be married to The IT, a former practicing medical doctor, the easiest of all the professionals to co-opt-corrupt given first of all how very lazy they are followed by this so godly feeling they have that the world owes them a living because they mostly slept through their residency when not learning from the likes of Melvin Weiss and his partner in crime Bill Lerach currently in prison for doing nothing more than paying medical doctors the most insignificant amounts in kickbacks to be their "lead plaintiffs"?

Extraordinarily important was that US$ 4 billion slave wage settlement but not quite as important as how much Deborah Sturman and Melvyn Weiss received as payment given how their services were supposed to be "pro bono".

Giving a good number of people including US Justice Department United States Attorneys a "hard on" right now is the fact that they who have this almost omnipotent power to convene a Grand Jury against anyone where all they are required to do is present their evidence without their "target" having an opportunity to defend themselves which the "target" can only do once the Grand Jury issues an indictment which is in most instances the "death nail" for anyone given how so conditioned are the so gullible American public in particular to think, "If there is smoke there must be fire."

So how come all the corrupt United States Attorneys haven't banded together by this time to concoct a whole bunch of baseless criminal charges against me by simply following in the footsteps of the imbecile of imbeciles, the slimeball of slimeballs IT who simply went about "cutting and pasting" a whole bunch of my emails and managing to convince a government bureaucrat back on September 11th, 2002 to issue against me a Temporary Restraining Order, and even though some 6 weeks later on October 24th, 2002, Judge Hendrix ruled 110% in my favor, all the while slapping this fuckhead of fuckheads, a carrier of infectious diseases that of course only finds a portal with those out of shape or whose immune system has been severely compromised by keeping the company of such a dickhead of dickheads, with his own Restraining Order, all the while this most awesome Superior Court Judge granted my F-C wife, Marie Dion Gevisser legal possession of a hand gun I had given to her only to protect herself physically against the IT were he to enter her property ever again, and as you know we now have in writing from the IT's soon-to-be 16-year young son that the IT, about a year ago, did in fact enter our property when neither MDG or I were present; not to mention that The IT's only son we know of, choosing to "dis"; i.e. nail his father to the cross, when thinking he better think very quickly of someone to blame for certain valuables that had gone "missing" that shortly thereafter were found, not that they had necessarily ever been missing.

To mention little of The IT's biological going on 19 year old playing college student daughter when confronted by her mother why The IT filed the baseless criminal complaint against me, back on the first anniversary of 911 said, "He said Gary left some threatening letters in his [my father's] letter box!" and when Marie Dion Gevisser then followed up with, "Well, what exactly did those letters say?", the IT's Trust-Hush-Fund daughter said, "How would I know?; that's what he told me!" and when MDG said, "Well you also know that he lies, so couldn't he have just made it all up?" and of course The IT's daughter then needed to find yet another distraction since you know after a while even the most "deafening silences" get so very boring as well as telling.

It is an interesting game this game of life that like the game of chess is getting one's opponent to play to your advantage and with each passing moment each of us knows that we have less time to contribute to the overall good than a moment before, and yet most of us, at best, take up space; not lost for a moment on one most ingenious mind, who had to have invented mathematics that can explain everything including "human emotion" given how the brain is all chemistry that translates back into the science into the math; again the mind the first indicator of the Supernatural.

Hit delete.

When Tzipi Livni was working for the Mossad in Paris, France she most likely did not think it important when tracking down and killing opponents of the State of Israel without first asking that the United States Congress to pass a Constitutional Amendment making the Kidon assassination unit of the Mossad also legal so long as they used poisons perfected by the CIA when spearheading the biological weapons programme with the South African Apartheid Regime for some 45 odd years beginning in earnest on May 26th, 1948 some 12 days following the official start of Israel's War of Independence 1947-1949, to give much if any thought to my mother Zena Badash-Ash Gevisser's very close personal friend Boris Senior who most would have believed would have been much closer to my father since they were closer in age, Boris born in 1924 and my Dad a year earlier, and both trained by the same Lieutenant Cohen, a non-Jewish South African flight instructor before both of them moved on to fighting the De Beers Nazi bastards in northern Italy; beginning with Boris' extraordinary purchase of some 50 British made Spitfires for 6 English Pounds Sterling a piece and then deciding to leave these fighter planes in South Africa since Boris thought they would never get through the most bizarre, the most heinous, the most virulently anti-Semitic American Government led blockade of Israel.

Ms. Livni, as we now all know is said to have an IQ of 150 which means first and foremost that her math; i.e. logical thought processing is very excellent, although it may not be quite that of my math-wizard French-Canadian artist painter wife whose IQ I surmise is most likely "off the charts" which is not to suggest that Ms. Livni is therefore "stupid" and wouldn't understand perfectly well how most significant was that decision, not by Boris, but by Ben Gurion and Co. to leave alone those 50 Spitfires in South Africa that could have so very easily been smuggled out of South Africa by the Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies in a myriad of ways although my maternal grandfather of Hasholom, Alef-Albert-Al Badash-Ash along with my grandfather Israel Issy Gevisser knew better than to even give the impression to anyone that they were helping in Israel's first war of survival whose battle plans for victory had been drawn up well before the official start of World Oil War II which most nincompoop historians suggest was September 1939 when Hitler invaded Poland.

It is very easy now to think, "What in God's name were those 50 Spitfires in the most perfect condition just doing in South Africa waiting for Boris Senior to arrive and purchase for such an incredibly small sum of money, in a rigged auction?" given how I just shared this very important piece of information with you.

Ben Gurion didn't invent the expression, "In war money is no object" but he certainly understood it, and so did devout Christian Field Marshall Jan Smuts, the best friend the Jewish people have ever had in modern day times.

Now have your mindless mind go back to much more modern day times when Ben Gurion gave the "green light" via Golda Meir, one of his handpicked successors, to "light up" deep underground Jewish cells to facilitate the Mossad sending out hit squads following the Munich Olympic massacres.

Most if not all your knowledge base comes from having seen Steven SPIelberg's epic 2005 documentary-drama MUNich.

Tzipi Livni knows that the Mossad, following Ben Gurion becoming informed by Jan Smuts, then second-in-command to Churchill of De Beers who play all sides of wars that they play a pivotal role in creating all around the world, had infiltrated the highest levels of British Intelligence well prior to outbreak of World Oil War II [see Chapter 9, DIAMOND FOR HITLER – THE DIAMOND INVENTION], never pay for intelligence or their weapons systems unless as I have said repeatedly to "flush out" someone like SPIelberg and Co.

For good reason Ben Gurion looked very suspiciously at anyone who survived World Oil War II beginning with Jewish people who survived the death camps of World Oil War II.

I now must leave this very large mall and head back to Mount Soledad to join up with my F-C wife on her red Piaggio scooter as this will be the first time she descends riding alone, and of course it is more for my "peace of mind" than hers given how well she already rides her 250 cc [cubic centimeter] powered so very fun to ride scooter, even more so for the observer.

I have not managed to connect up to a wireless network so this heavily broadcasted email may be delayed.

When you have the chance, identify which "ugly" is missing from both these photos below taken split seconds apart:

Dude you are such a pussy, coward, lying cock-sucker. As you can see, I know that you are full of shit and hide behind the Internet and would never face me in person or even on the telephone. You are a piece of shit and a mental case but you already know that. Here's a question: Why does everyone say that you're insane?

it is a multiple choice question:

1. Because you have vast knowledge of Israel, South Africa, the diamond business and the gold mining business.
2. Because you are so handsome and intelligent.
3. Because you have important relationships with important people.
4. BECAUSE YOU ARE INSANE.

The choice is obvious but you are too fucking stupid to admit it.

Fuck off you fucking coward.

Do you think the fact that you are the ugliest mother-fucker in the entire world drove you crazy? It must be tough to be so fucking ugly; no wonder your mother hates you.

So where is my phone call from the FBI? Why won't you give me your phone number?

Is it because you don't have a phone (homeless people usually don't) or is it because you are a fucking pussy?

I know that you're a paranoid, delusional mental case but it seems like you're a total pussy as well. That's not a good combination, especially for somebody as fucking butt-ugly as you. I don't blame your family for disowning you; I wouldn't have anything to do with you either. It is fun to taunt you though; you are so fucking stupid and so full of shit. You annoy and pester yes you certainly could, since that's not what you have scanned below. I know you just make stuff up to appear smart and important and I understand that you are mentall ill and can't help yourself. I know that your family has given-up trying to help you since your insanity makes you impossible to be around and I realize that you are homelss and will probably die in a shelter or jail. Please get some help, please do something about your mental state. Trust me, it is all in your head, there is no big world conspiracy against you; you are not a secret agent. You are very, very ill and need medical help.

So Gary,

Since I have received no response from you I can easily assume a few things:

You have no wife

You are mentally diseased

You are incredibly ugly (even for a Jew which is saying a great deal)

You are homeless or perhaps live in your car

You do not know anybody at the FBI or Mossad

You just send random, meaningless emails to strangers because you are an asshole

Did I mention that you're ugly???

You are a pussy and a coward; you email people even when they beg you to stop, you threaten people with calls from the FBI but you won't give out your own phone number (maybe, since you are homeless, you don't have one?)

you have some serious Mommie issues. I am sure she hates you, I mean you are so stupid, mentally ill and ugly, who can blame her.

Hey, I was brave enough to give you my phone number (knowing full well you were too much of a pussy to ever use it) Why not email YOUR phone number to all of the people you annoy with your stupid messages?? I know you won't do that because you are too much of a chicken-shit coward to have to actually deal with reality. Also, you probably have no phone; I suspect you are homeless and use the PC at the library to send your ramblings out.

The following was sent to me about a year ago, I now appreciate Gary and all his ramblings, sometimes he's hilarious, other times brilliant, and then by my limitations unfathomable. But whatever it is, it's entertaining, deep and thought provoking.

Here is what was sent to me - Read it and you will understand and appreciate the simple insight.

Hi Michael

Im don't think we have met,

my advice, leave this prick alone!!!!

I knew him as a kid, he was normal, I have no idea what happened.

I think possibly its genetic, his brother Neil is also some-what strange!!!!

Gary obviously has some serious issues, and the mother-fucker is totally vindictive!!!

IRS or what ever the flavor of the day is, he WILL fuck you in the end, he has nothing else to do.

I think he is totally delusional, as is 99% of whatever it is he is talking about..

But he works like Walmart ---Volume volume volume...LOL

He speaks so much crap, that the remaining 1% is possibly more reality than the average human being is capable of dealing with...

Gary is Super Smart, and is on a mission of mammoth proportions, hence the people he copies on his emails....

My advice once again, you better off steering well clear!

OBVIOUSLY, while immediately prior thinking wild passionate sex with the hottest, coolest chick on planet Mother Earth, I thought that I would like for you to run a survey with you ever expanding focus group to see about getting a t-shirt that reads exactly what Michael Boyd aka topped-87623@mypacks.net wrote below including the "from", "Sent", "to", and "subject" - my concern is that he is getting very boring writing perfectly understanding American English, punctuation pretty much perfect, commas in the right place, despite head up his ass - come to think of it, what about an electronic billboard t-shirt and we have hot looking women riding their red vespas around town with the lettering going around all their curvatures and we have contests going on over the internet and the best responses getting electronically transmitted – come to think of it, I need to find a way to get onto Marie's scooter's license plate the verbiage "R u getting it, John?"

Who am I kidding, you are so long winded and boring that words can't describe it. You and your wife are so fucking ugly that you both must have been hit by the ugly bus at least twice. (I am basing my assumptions about your wife's ugliness on your ugliness, this is assuming she really exists and is not a delusion like most of the other shit you try and write about)

Please shut the fuck up with your fucking stupid ramblings. Nobody cares and it is all bullshit. WE DON'T CARE ABOUT YOUR STUPID FUCKING UGLY FAMILY OR YOUR NONSENICAL EMAILS. GO THE FUCK AWAY!!!

Yeah, like you're really going to sell any T-shirts? Please, just like you have connection in the FBI, Mossad and Debeers. You were going to have the FBI call me; of course they never did.

That T-shirt design is a stupid, ugly, non-sensical and annoying as you are.

Jesus tap dancing Christ, you know the person isn't there, you know nobody ever reads your stupid emails and yet you still send them. I am beginning to think you are less mentally ill and more just plain fucking stupid. Of course, there is no arguing how fucking ugly you are.

Why don't you ever respond to me?? Is it because I know you are full of shit, ugly, a mental case and a liar???

Nice try with the stories about you having an attractive wife. You must think I'm as stupid as you. She either

- A. Is something you made up
- B. Is a delusion brought on by your obvious mental illness
- C. Is as fucking ugly as you and trust me, you are the fucking ugliest piece of shit ever.

Jesus Gary you are really fucking ugly. Not only are you annoying with your stupid emails that nobody wants to get or even bothers to read but you're the most fucking ugly guy in the fucking world. No wonder you hate your mother, I am sure the feeling is mutual; she's must look at you and want to puke. I know you can't help being so fucking ugly or being mentally unstable or ill but put a fucking bag over that fucking thing.

Also, where is the call from the FBI you threatened me with? You're such a little (ugly) piece of shit trying to pretend you're a big, intelligent man.

Why don't you go home, your mother made you a nice matzo ball soup!!!

Mike, I also lied, and you also know why it is easier to lie to liars.

Would you be interested in helping edit my forthcoming email to Paul Robinson while I wait for my F-C wife to finish the hot design on our first t-shirt, THE MEEK WITH TEETH SHALL INHERIT THE EARTH, just something I "dreamed up" that should be invigorating to those who think the Church didn't do enough during World Oil War II to save the best of our Jewish brothers and sisters; i.e. it isn't just that the church didn't "do enough" or worse yet "sat on their hands" but significantly more utterly disgusting is the fact the Pope and Co. contributed greatly to the financiers of Nazi Germany coming away not simply "scot free" all their real estate holdings greatly enhanced but cash and gold richer than ever; in other words you would understand by logical analysis that in fact the financiers of Nazi Germany who came away "smiling" have a lot to thank the Pope and Co. who should be the only ones most offended by our right on time for the 4th of July t-shirt, I am not kidding, wouldn't you agree?
