SO where's my phone call from the FBI or a call from even you? COULD it be that deep down you know you are full of shit and would rather send out stupid emails than face the truth?

Hey asshole, I thought you were going to have the FBI call me? What happened? Where are all of your important friends and contacts in the global power structure. Could it be that you are full of shit??

If you think it wasn't any simpler than that what prevented you from giving your last name followed by your first name, let alone have an alias?

Now, tell us before placing the call how many hits have you got on your website the past 12 months, and how do you possibly make a living?

Now remember you read more than my first sentences.

This will be the last response you receive from me prior to the call.

How did you get on my email list and would you like to be removed?

Would you like a t-shirt?

Do you have anything else going on in your life besides for wanting to become a "somebody"?

Do you have other friends besides for those "models"?

Could you have them email me from another account if that is their preference?

How's the weather?

Gold last trading at U$876.10

Are you thinking of converting some of your US$ cash into gold bullion?

How much lower does it have to go before you decide?

Please explain which sentences if any need further clarification?

What did you think of my SHORT and CLEAR response to "Helene" [sic] over at the Israeli Department of Defense Attache at the Israeli Embassy in Washington DC, that complied precisely with her request and was acknowledged by both Israeli Military Intelligence and the Mossad.

Have you applied yet for a job with the FBI?

What would you charge to photo Stephen Cohen?

I only read your first sentence but here's the answer, you googled my cell phone number. Did you think that it was that difficult to figure out. Do you really think you are that smart? You really are a fucking annoying idiot!
