Subject: Day 5 Hostage Crisis Over - AT NO CHARGE - Go/eT Intelligence - T-shirt website template

Mike,

You are recovering well but I don't believe my one American programmer "Adam L. Ant" [sic] is putting you to your, "maximum and best use".

Adam could be a little distracted by the ants, click HERE – and I think you would agree he shouldn't wait for better advice from Professor of Economics Stanford University, Geoffrey Rothwell, to figure out first if there is Borax in the shed of the Stone Home, and if not to check with the local hardware store in Guatay, different to Qatar, Middle East that features prominently in the ingenious CLEAR, SHORT one sentence Israeli Military Intelligence Report, to see if they have, and at the same time go online to see what would be the right mixture with honey to make it animal friendly – So could you have this graphic artist of yours just take it a little further and place on the front of the t-shirt, maybe in child's writing, a little crooked, not so straight, and maybe also think of a design, maybe a stick figure, the words, "I don't lie, steal or cheat..." and perhaps a couple, or 3 red ants thinking like ants – and you know if you think like an ant you are an ant – and on the back get intelligence?

Have her drop everything she is doing between now and when we have world peace, to just play around with it all.

Today, Day 5 of Hostage Crisis over!

Please, don't put her on the spot and ask if she would wear it.

Were she to have a baby one day old all the way up to age 11 would she buy it?

Who wouldn't want to raise their child from day with being ingrained, "I don't lie, steal or cheat!"?

All the changes going on in the world today however depressing for those who profit from war and who see peace as war, are very good things which all independent minded thinking people should not only embrace but feel invigorated to chant loudly all the while standing tall with just3ants.com in the process of being made "non-threatening" and so inviting to parents of young kids not co-opted-corrupt by this "me, me, me, money" world, and for those interested in the truth to go to www.justmememe.com to get the true History of Money Creation and Its future, my forthcoming book that begins where the Diamond Invention leaves off.

Now consider very seriously the verbiage for the "Terms and Conditions" maybe on the inside/outside label of the t-shirt in very bright red, and to make sure the "values"; i.e. the various shades/contrast of grey; better yet a high key of chroma; i.e. the brightness of the colors along with a low key of "contrast", making it all oil painting "picture perfect":

Let us know if you cannot buy it because it is not affordable or " I want to buy but....".

What about on a second label hanging – using organic glue containing a daily portion of iron for those of us vegetarian - from the first, the following verbiage:

Also make note, "every t-shirt sold comes with a money back guarantee if you can prove it!"

I think you will agree this will ease up the decision making about purchasing the t-shirt?

Ask your designer as well as the focus group made up of all your employees, customers and outside contractors including those in China whether they agree with my walkin-talkin work-of-art with the cutest of French accents French-Canadian wife, Marie Dion Gevisser that we offer all the sizes and next to them the words, "NOT AVAILABLE", until you get to children sizes from day one to large which could fit a shapely young woman; otherwise special order only!

Wouldn't that be great?

And if you can't remember, don't forget to poll everyone who ever attended our Jewish day school Carmel College in Durban, South Africa including all those in this wedding photo below showing Derrick Beare lending support to the brassiere of his relation, bride Bess Magid as her husband Neil Resnick, standing on the left in the white shirt give the standard fake real estate smile.

BTW, Bess was one of my Charm School mother's pupils who lived just down the road from our last house in Durban, 50 Bowes-Lyon Avenue, Glenwood, a quick sprint to the University of Natal-Kwazulu campus which I attended between 1975 and the first quarter of 1978 when I was a tutor as part of the Business Administration's Honors Program, immediately prior to immigrating to the U.S., arriving in Chicago, Illinois with my former Allied Jewish Fighter-Bomber-Pilot father, Bernie on March 17th, 1978, St. Patrick's Day.

The more I think about it, what if you, in your lunch hour today, could get this airline stewardess that Derrick and I met on the flight from Los Angeles to Mexico City on the day of the 1986 World Cup final that had West Germany playing

Argentina, and only when we returned to Los Angeles the next day, spending less than 24 hours in Mexico City, did we know who won, to get by the end of the day all airline employees throughout the world to commit or not commit, on video to wearing our t-shirts!!

Not to mention, I believe you are also related to Bess Magid whose father Alan Magid, the attorney who met with De Beers first Black President Nelson Mandela when Mandela was on the tail end of serving his 27 year life sentence, mostly on Robin Island, Cape Town, South Africa – click HERE for Alan Magid's handwritten notes.

To mention little of Derrick's uncle, Dr. Jonathan "Trouble Bubble" Beare instructed Alan Magid to take over from "Trouble Bubble" the 50,000 Rand "credit line" that "Trouble Bubble" had first "generously" extended to your clothing company in South Africa, but once having you "hooked" and needing more, making certain your business would not only fail but you would always find yourself working for other people without the time of day to be bothered to figure it all out on your own.

To mention in passing this "The Struggle Continues" card that was given by the convicted, and sentenced to death, black defendants in their South African treason trial, to their attorney Alan Magid, with the instructions that were he to find himself in "hot waters" with the "freedom fighters" fighting the United States of America's Apartheid Regime, he should present such a card.

Of course you have forgotten which is why I am reminding you yet again of the second to last meeting I had with "Trouble Bubble" at the Beverly Regent Hotel in Beverley Hills, California, about a year before our last meeting, where Jonathan upon hearing from Derrick that I had spent the previous night in my own very wired suite, excused himself from the breakfast table where he was meeting with the Rothschilds brothers below:

And in the course of our 5 or so minute conversation as the valet parking attendants brought up that same 4 door black Jeep that I had used to transport

King Golden Jr. Esq. and Valerie Schulte Esq. to a small Roman Catholic Church just outside Tijuana, Mexico, and of course the thought occurred to me that our pal, "Our Man Roger" had set up the "bust" by the Mexican Federale on a motorcycle who looked far too clean shaven and cool to be a "regular", I got "Trouble Bubble" to reveal that he also understood that the "gun-money-power" of the Durban North Jewish Kapo Lazarus clan did not come from the total pittance these very "open supporters" of the South African Apartheid Regime donated to their National-Socialist Party.

And of course you are also not confused in thinking that "sumhow" [sic] Beverly Hills, California is one and the same as Sol "Gambling Czar" Kersner's first hotel, the Beverly Hills Hotel in Umchlanga Rocks, just north of Durban, that my Royal Mater-Mother's one very close pal built in 1960 after mortgaging his parents kosher Minora Hotel which is where my mother and her highly secretive multi-millionaire father who avoided the Durban Jewish Community "like the plague" first stayed when arriving in Durban, South Africa, and beginning on day one to act like they were raising money for Israel, when, as you now know, ever since winning the War of Independence November 1947-Januray 1949 and very quickly becoming the world's most advanced nuclear armed nation with a nuclear submarine fleet armed with the most advanced nuclear weapons, second to none, neither the Mossad nor the State of Israel have bought in to Hollywood's propaganda of money being so important, let alone the brainwashing, "A Diamond is Forever-A Girl's Best Friend".

Yes, so very revealing our last meeting in that same main restaurant on the ground floor of the Beverly Regent where "Trouble Bubble" and I were seated one table away from Larry King of Larry King Live CNN; all taking place on January 13th, 2005, some 63 odd days following my decision after first speaking with mother who warned me, "Are you not concerned for your life!!" to break a 24-year deafening silence with De Beers, beginning with the memorable words, "Remember me?", that resulted in "Trouble Bubble" getting abruptly up from the table, brushing by my chair and warning me, "One of these days you are going to find yourself in big trouble", after of course not only had I "flushed him out" but his unmistakably physically threatening words that he had his favorite nephew Derrick later repeat to me over the phone, were those of a poorly aging homosexual coming to terms with how despite being a multi-billionaire with "non-religious" and overwhelming heterosexual Jewish people all over the world pulling out all stops to ingratiate themselves with him, he was nothing more than one most small clog in the machinations of the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel's perpetual money-me making machines now so very fast winding down.

Not to mention Dr. Jonathan "Trouble Bubble" Beare who wouldn't need either Mr. Jeffrey R. Krinsk Esq. of Finkelstein & Krinsk whose partner Howard Finkelstein is a former U.S. Attorney, to vouch for either my credibility or integrity, understood perfectly well before getting up abruptly from the table after our couple of hours or so breakfast meeting that was months in the planning, all via email, why I had chosen to discuss with him just one very small mentioned item in the most fascinating non-fiction novel, The Diamond Invention written in 1978 by the DAAC's Hollywood blockbuster author and investigative journalist Edward Jay Epstein who still writes editorials for De Beers and Co.'s Wall Street Journal; again this most important year in the history of The Diamond Invention was the same year I arrived in the United States armed with a most important "Letter of Introduction" which was the first step in taking over from my mother's very close and "lucky" friend, my father's first cousin, David Gevisser, as the American head of the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel,

Cutting and pasting – Chapter 18 – THE AMERICAN CONSPIRACY – PARAGRAPH 15

The founder of Engelhard Minerals and Chemicals, Charles Engelhard, was a well-connected American entrepreneur who had inherited a small metal fabricating company from his father. In the late 1940s, he had journeyed to South Africa to make his fortune. South African mines had a surplus of gold, but government regulations prohibited the exporting of gold bullion from South Africa without permits from the central bank, which were very difficult to obtain. Great Britain, which still controlled the financial affairs of South Africa, wanted to retain as much gold as possible within the sterling bloc. Engelhard found a legal loophole through that regulation: while it was illegal to export gold bars, it was legal to export objets d'art made of gold. Engelhard formed a company called Precious Metals Development that bought gold from the mines and cast it in the form of statues and other religious items. Engelhard exported these religious objets d'art to Hong Kong, where they were melted down and turned back into gold bullion, which could then be sold on the free market. (This ploy, used by Ian Fleming in his novel Goldfinger may have led to the apocryphal story that he based the Goldfinger character on Engelhard)

While being very crooked and most devious, "Trouble Bubble" isn't the dumbest Jewish South African in the world.

Moreover, "Trouble Bubble" who has known me rather well ever since I first began settling on the west coast of California in early 1981, one year after I had got my "feet wet" working for DeBeers' Codiam Inc. on 47th Street New York City, when he was the proud owner of the Century City Shopping Center in west Los Angeles, bordering Beverly Hills where he and his partners would go on to own "Gold properties" as well as in downtown Los Angeles and most of all knowing when to get the hell out of the US real estate market and head back to South Africa via Amsterdam which is where he made his first billion US-DeBeers dollars, "appreciated" the fact that I was "cutting to the chase" when pointing out the utter nonsense of that 200 word paragraph that to the overwhelming majority of literate world's morons, some 99.9999% of those with high school diplomas with includes some 100% or close to Jewish South Africans beginning with each and every Jewish South African who ever attended anyone of our Jewish day schools including Carmel College with the exception of "Trouble Bubble" and me, of course, would not have been in the least bit "troubled" by what increasingly edgy EJE led the so very discombobulated masses, not just the Jewish morons throughout the world, to believe.

"Trouble Bubble" at first looked at me like I had "lost my mind" when I simply repeating the words verbatim, "Engelhard found a legal loophole through that regulation" since "Trouble Bubble" knew that even he, without all his Hasidic-ultraorthodox Jewish-Black Hatter connections, could just call up Charles Engelhard and Harry Oppenheimer's South African Reserve Bank, under the command and control of the Engelhards and Oppenheimers' US Federal Reserve bank since its formation in 1913, one year prior to the outbreak of World War I, and take out of South Africa as much gold, platinum, diamonds, uranium, yachts, prostitutes whether or not carrying real or fake diamonds, whether or not produced in General Electric machines since the mid-1950s, as he wanted, so long as such gold, in particular, did not enter the United States of America where there was a law prohibiting American citizens from hoarding gold.

You should not only go very quiet once getting your arms around such very easy to understand but MOST important insight and analysis that I am sharing, at no charge, with you and the rest of the world, having of course first run it by IMI and the Mossad, but be smart enough to immediately be forwarding this entire communiqué to everyone you know starting with your two teenage daughters, as I now read carefully an important email sent to me a little earlier from Philippe:

Subject: Plastic bags story! please read and do your part

Watch till the end...Pass it on and do your part next time shopping.

THANK YOU
L. PHILIPPE VIDIGAL E AVILA, EWS.

Bear in mind this email Philippe, who represents some very excellent and well priced French wines, contains a 3 Mega Byte file titled, The Dangers of Plastic Bags; so just email him directly assuming your email service provider can handle a 3 MG file.

Side note to Philippe: I would like another 2 cases of that very excellent 2004 Cotes-du-Rhone as I am planning a party this evening at the gallery-studio cliff house.

Mike, let me now repeat what Marie told her almost 16-year son Jonathan the other evening who first said he, "didn't get it":

Because most people over the age of 12, mostly lie, steal and cheat!

This is our biggest market, one day old to 11 and after that whoever can stand the test.

MDG, then went on to explain to Jonathan that her first job when she was 14-15, was with her eldest brother who was a veterinarian in Nova Scotia where as you would know they speak mostly English and Acadian French which is, according very literate in both the French and English MDG, more difficult than English.

"I didn't understand English very well, answering the phone was a challenge!"

At some point all the red lettered labeling could get a bit much, so please try restraining yourself and your designer from "going overboard".

Assuming you get back to me in the next couple of minutes that would be perfectly fine, since before going surfing on my www.footsak.com wave ski - the surf in front of the cliff still glass-like, but not perfect-like as it was during breakfast before MDG headed out on her red Piaggio 250 cc scooter to art class with Sebastian Capella, although, the sets are still coming in close to 4 foot if not higher - I will be sending out a heavily broadcasted email to a Mr. Adam M. Pener, Chief Operating Officer of Conflict Securities Advisory Group under the "command and control" of my old heavy pot smoking pal, Roger W. Robinson also well known to the Mossad as "Our Man Roger" who along with his pal Sec. James A. Baker III who "Our Man Roger" led us with very little difficulty, to believe in the early 1980s was, "THE MOST DANGEROUS PERSON IN THE WORLD", were not only the architects of the "Soviet EVIL Empire" that began the process of bankrupting both the United States and the Soviet Union in order to create chaotic conditions in the capital and financial markets that were well on their way to total collapse as the Diamond Invention began to fall apart, such distraction of embroiling the world in an "arms race" simply the precursor to World Oil War III and you know from Einstein, that the next world war will be fought with sticks and stones, but Sec. Baker and "Our man Roger", the protégé of De Beers heavy duty banker David Rockefeller whose family are featured in Edward Jay Epstein's, The Diamond Invention, were in total "command and control" of the first Reagan Administration.

You might enjoy the family photo below taken around the same time I was jumping over barrels on ice in ice shows:

On the right is my mother's half-brother, Joe Ash, Commodore of the highly anti-Semitic Durban Yacht Club and lifetime Durban City Council member. To Joe's right is my mother Zena; and to my right, my mother's and Joe's mother, my grandmother Rachel Badash-Ash, and to her right my middle brother Melvin who turned 53 on Day 1 of the Hostage Crisis ending; and to Melvin's right Lynne Tillum Ash, my uncle Joe Ash's second wife whose only brother Tony Tillum is a lifelong very close friend of Nicholas Oppenheimer, the current Anglo South African head of the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel.

The two photos below are both of my paternal grandfather Alef-Albert-Al Badash-Ash. The one on the left taken around 1960 was when he was once visiting Lusaka, Zambia where my father's sister, Daphne Gevisser and her husband Dr. Leizer Molk MD lived, their house eventually being taken by the Chinese Embassy when they moved to the United States a few years later. The second photo taken in the early 1930s shows my mother Zena in the arms of Alef Badash, who changed both his first and last name in September 1941, just before his 42nd birthday, December 5th, 1899.

shows Zena around the age of 17, prior to immigrating with her entire immediate family to South Africa, surrounded by mostly young male admirers who knew that she was not only attractive with a "very good figure" but her father was "loaded". It is even possible such a photo was taken on board the Capetown Castle as the Ashes made their way from Southampton.

This photo below was taken on that ship journey with Al Ash "hot on the trail" of the De Beers Nazis who had convincingly won World Oil War II.

Below are photos taken a short while later with both my mother and father and his attractive sister Daphne:

Would you say that had my father not looked so happy in 1949 when you recall again, in my mother's memoirs, "From the earliest days of 1949 she [Zena] visited Israel two and three times a year writing reports for different publications", the Mossad would have had to find a better way to keep my grandfather Al Ash "off the radar screen"; even more difficult if De Beers and Co. had watched those in mint condition 50 Spitfires purchased by Boris Senior, Ben Gurion's one most trusted South African arms purchaser, who only knew what he needed to know, for the extraordinary low price of 6 English Pounds Sterling each, being shipped out of the warehouses of The Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies in not all that large crates, and when not shipped over the oceans, to be trucked into Israel using Israel's most trusted Bedouins; not to mention how long The Moshal Gevisser Group of Companies would have lasted had Al Ash and Co. not kept secret even from my father all that was going on to buttress the American led arms boycott of Israel that included making it illegal for men of military age such as my father with an extraordinary knowledge of the desert terrain as well as flying combat fighter-aircraft such as the much sought after Spitfires, given how both Al

Ash and his father Israel Issy Gevisser hadn't forgotten how my father while still 18 years of age had volunteered to become a fighter-bomber-pilot and would never have gone along with not being able to join up with his very good pal Commander Syd Cohen who like Boris Senior only got told what he needed to know.

Never to forget Israel's most beyond belief brilliant non-Jewish Druze Special Forces commandos who were the most active of all Israel's Special Forces during the brutal but high intelligence gathering 6 week 2006 summer war with Hezbollah Special Op Commandos who also most brilliantly mimicked the best of the best of Israeli Special Forces commandos, but were not able to inflict a single casualty on the Druze Special Forces, the most lethally effective and so very trusted, and who do not allow any converts into their ranks.

Again, in 24 hours or less we could begin world peace whether or not I am placed directly in charge of the most brutal Israel Defense Force; and of course if I were, then G0d/G-d only help those who see peace as war, who profiteer from human and wildlife misery.

If you think like an ant, you are an ant!

It up to each one of us to decide whether we want to be on side the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel, the mafia of mafia, who interfere with the light who also happen to be an extraordinarily poor and most brutal allocator of resources or with me, on the "side of light" and quite happy to "go it alone".

KIL – Knowledge-Information-Light rEVOLUTION – Truth, that which does not change.

Of course each of us so very busy people have that much less of a choice with each moment that passes by, one less moment to give peace a better chance.

Hi Mike,

Thank you for your time and the lead. I think that your assessment is correct, I believe at some point we will use models as the supplier has used, but in the interim any artists line-drawings that you could locate would be greatly appreciated.

Thanks again,
Adam

P.S. What do you think of just3ants.com? Do you have any suggestions?

Hi Adam.

I thought you guys could get pics of shirts from the supplier's websites, but now that I'm checking them out, I'm not sure they would be suitable. See what I MEAN? Browse around <http://www.missionimprintables.com> & hopefully you'll find something you can use.

In the meantime, I'll check with our graphic artist if she's got some line-drawings - I think that would be better for the website. What do you think?

Mike,
Gary Gevisser mentioned that you might have a t-shirt template that I could use for our website; if you could forward that to me, I would greatly appreciate it.

Thank you for your time,
