Philippe, my uncle Pete Grande and his partner Albert Halimi own a plastic bag manufacturing company that makes bags for Jack in the Box, Cheesecake Factory, etc. He is the same uncle that laundered money from South Africa in the late 1980s to get his business started. The company's name is Commandpackaging.com and also restaurantbags.com.

I reported his money laundering from the South African Apartheid to FBI Special Agent Curran Thomerson when we last spoke, but I have not heard anything regarding their follow up since our conversation on April 29, 2008.

Feel free to pass this on to all the people that you sent this message to.
