Subject: PART V - RULE OF LAW – UPHOLD THE LAW

Ladies and Gentlemen,

It is frustrating when in one breath, in one moment, you can see how very exposed are each one of the world's hypocrites from those at the very top whose names never appear in the FOOLS NAMES FOOLS FACES IN PUBLIC PLACES to those at the very bottom who wear masks when pulling off armed robberies, kidnappings, all in the name of "modern art monies".

So ironic that Bill Clinton would chastise his own when suggesting the media were making out that his wife was like a "bank robber" for having lied in order that she and he, representing the worst of the American debauched spirit, fat, out of shape, pencil pushers, lazy, continue living on big government handouts, talking out of both sides of the mouths, just talking, talking, and then late last night as I was about to go to sleep, having got in sufficient exercise of both my mind and body to sleep, to dream of a better world when waking up early to the sound of the birds, the butterflies still very much around, and that sound of the surf and then this out of this world view, I checked to see if there was anything interesting on Netflix, and after speaking on the phone with a customer service person because of a licensing problem because I am using some 4 different computer systems, I got to watch the movie Manda Bala about crime in Brazil that details the inextricable link between big government corruption and small time thieves killing and mutilating other human beings to grab their "money, me modern-art-monies"; the movie ending with a masked gunman, his 10th kid on the way, hoping that maybe one of his children will become President of Brazil and improve the lives of people like him living in the slums who when not fighting over the scraps see it simply as a matter of survival to do whatever it takes to grab hold of the money.

Not to mention this appearing to be thin and lanky person recalled that he was about 16 when he first murdered someone, deriving great satisfaction when pointing out cops seem to be at the top of his list of emotionless killings as he also prided himself in funding the cleanup of the slums of San Paulo; pitifully paved roads, raw sewage still flowing, and the list can get more disgusting, all thanks to kidnappings amounting to one a day, or so another person profiteering from human degradation wanted us to believe as he sells bulletproofing for vehicles of the rich including himself of course.

In order to help address Adam L. Tucker's "frustration" as he also told me his despondency was not interfering with him updating the look of just3ants.com that as you know, so far the month, as of April 12th had sum 426 Unique Hits, I suggested he watch this excellent adding to all the hysteria movie while reminding him of what I wrote him and shared with the world yesterday morning, ending with letting him know:

Life is very cheap and very violent amongst the poor, and the filthy "modern art money, me" rich fail to see how they make savages of the poor whose crooks hide their faces but the real crooks, smile all the way to the bank without anyone including the movie producers asking who actually "makes the money".

All the world's corruption can be traced back to DeBeers and Co. who never invented corruption but they are the world's manages of crime which is sad but not hopeless.

Adam is trying hard to get in shape and become physically fit in order to enjoys the rewards of stamina that come in short supply amongst a conquering nation such as the US that started out murdering its indigenous peoples in order to grab their lands and water and we all know who steals the lands and water along with rich mineral deposits are like De Beers who own all the banks.

Mr. President I just got a whiff of the sweet scent from this one candle my wife was gifted from the owner of Gerhard over at the Del Mar Plaza for her 50th birthday as the crashing waves blew the air in though the one open side front windows all the way through to the open back window above and to the right of where she sleeps on "her side of the bed" causing the aroma of the candle even when not lit to permeate, reminding me of another movie we saw a few years back about Iraq with these guitar players whose electricity was derived from heavy duty smelling gasoline generators stinking up the confined quarters they were playing in, just to keep themselves sane and human, and the one guitar player speaking, I seem to recall perfect English, having never seen the ocean and just dreaming of one day breathing in the fresh ocean swept air, all the while the extraordinary depressing noise of the generators added to the nauseating smell filling his lungs; his mind however, not turning to moosh.

Again, I grew up in the rich persons neighborhoods of Durban, South Africa but in those 21 years shy of one week a day never went by when I didn't think of those disgusting Jewish people propping up the 3rd Reich's Southern Division causing most of all the murdering of some of the greatest Jewish minds of our times.

One has to feel with each passing moment great pity for the children of both rich and poor elitists such as those belonging to people like high school teacher Mr. Trupe who when out and about, mostly just wanting an audience, makes a point of talking loud to their children pointing out, for example that when standing in a crowded checkout line at Henry's grocery store in Solana Beach with their young kid in tow, that at one time sweet potatoes were used to determine the wealth of an individual, now not simply going deafening silent, and if that weren't a bad enough display of their "Poverty of Thought", but to have actually placed my very good name, me all about informing the impressionable and defenseless youth about the truth of this "money, me, fun and games, man, fun and games, De Beer" so very sick society, on the "banned list", which was the United States of America's South African Apartheid Regime aka the 3rd Reich's Southern Division's first line of defense-offense against its opponents.

You recall me mentioning this helmet story that involved a Jewish South African policeman, Michael Sagorim just a couple or so classes behind me at Carmel College High School, simply "upholding the law" when catching a young black kid stealing the worn out motorcycle helmet of David Schmarman, a classmate of my elder sister Kathy-Louise who was "banned" because he was considered a "communist" and "troublemaker" and consequently could not congregate with anyone outside of his home and even in his family's home there were restrictions on the number of people he could meet with, and of course no one else on the "banned list"; such a message filtering through very quickly to people such as myself and my Royal Mater who never, not once, commented on the brutality of this regime that the US Armed Forces kept in power for some 45 odd years while US Big Government business interests stole blindly South Africa's rich mineral resources, and yes of course such persons have names, faces as well as home and email addresses.

Zena Gevisser was the first to tell me when I was not yet in my teens and questioning the "status quo" how very important it was for me to know, "IF THERE WASN'T A BLACK PROBLEM IN SOUTH AFRICA THERE WOULD BE A JEWISH PROBLEM".

Just the idea that one human being's life, not what they contribute to the betterment of humankind, is worth more let alone worth saving, is void of human thought.

Certainly, there is nothing in the Hebrew Bible that talks to such diabolical utter nonsense.

But when you say something enough times and then you see with your own eyes what happens to people like David Schmarman who chose to stand tall and who is today deafeningly silent no doubt profiting handsomely from the status quo, most likely a medical doctor, you begin to realize that my Royal Mater had been around the block a few times when giving me the "shock treatment".

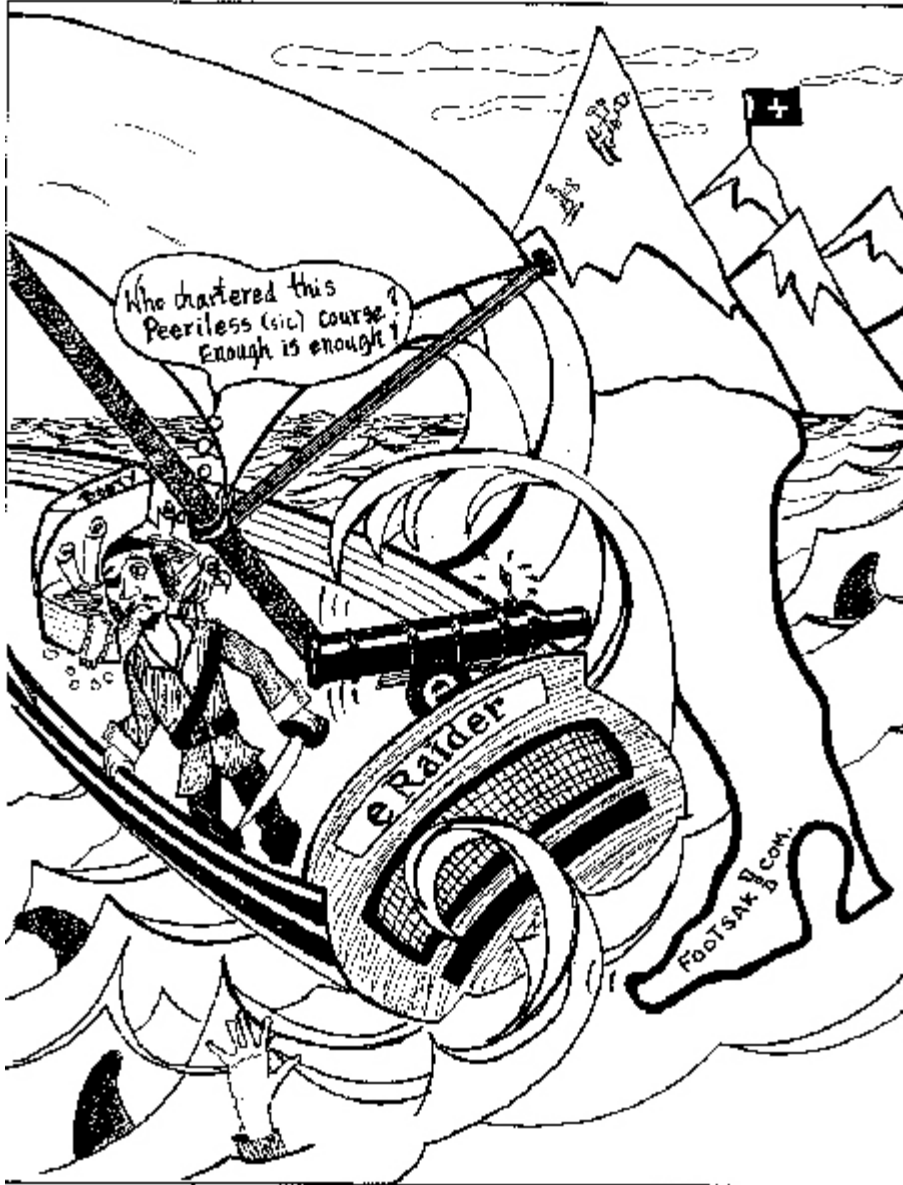

IF THERE WASN'T A BLACK PROLBEM IN SOUTH AFRICA THERE WOULD BE A JEWISH PROBLEM.

Look at Black Americans like highly educated and worldly Devin Standard who understands clearly the difference between "right and wrong" when it comes to all those who support big government bailouts for the filthy rich who are just stealing legally from the poor who don't quite "get it" more so than they don't know what to do about it.

Stupid is stupid doesn't matter whether one is rich or poor financially.

Lets now go back to Hilary taking on the Chinese in her very recent speech before a group of factory workers working for a defense contractor in Indiana.

Hilary is a lawyer and why not put her on a US Navy Destroyer and have her walk the plank.

Hilary remembers that her husband received a Rhodes-De Beers Scholarship to attend Oxford University over in England even if he didn't complete his studies as he marched in the streets protesting the De Beers-Vietnam War.

The headline news in Drudge this morning shows:

'BITTER' NO MORE

Drudge is also a prick and he knows it.

So does everyone else failing to stand tall knowing those who profit from war, who see peace as war, are increasingly up against superior and overwhelming forces of Light-Information-Knowledge.

Lack of knowledge–information-light-power, power to change the world stems from humans being lazy and fearful from embracing the truth.

The truth is too disrupting for some people too busy keeping track of all their lies from day one.

Marie Dion Gevisser and I don't need anyone's approval given how we are not only intelligent but tell it exactly the way it is, and those responding with their gutless, nonsense comments that only highlight the rest of their deafening silences, are only fooling themselves.

FOOLS NAMES, FOOLS FACES IN PUBLIC PLACES.

You betray your own mind, the first indicator of the Supernatural when you lie, steal and cheat which includes stealing peoples' non-renewable time.

Another truth is the Clintons Earned $109 Million in 8 years since leaving the White House and the balance sheet of the United States worthless.

Everyone has their excuses even Devin Standard saying to himself that he should be allowed while stealing Adam L. Tucker's time to be upset about the lack of response from the Jewish people of the world to the fact that a great part of their world revolves around the insidious Diamond Invention, and that people like Elie Weasel are in a much better position than him to simply walk in to the Oval Office and provide you with my "blueprint" to save the United States of American from the most bloody ethnic cleansing civil war that will make all genocides pale in comparison including the American Civil War of the mid-19th century that cost 600,000 American lives.

Talk about poor fighters eating their own in such large quantities.

That 600,000 is closer to 60 million being brutally butchered today and I wager that number will get significantly higher bearing in mind the Chinese government can also do the numbers and so can Israeli Military Intelligence and of course the Mossad are not exactly stupid.

So far, and to the best of my knowledge, the total contributions to just3ants.com still amount to a whopping US$23.88, and I am of course more encouraged just as I would be if your only supporter here in the United States was me and your gorgeous wife.

Please give Laura a hug and kiss from me. She is so very deserving and so are you.

The winds have died down and I am now heading on the Ducati ST4S to join my most beautiful French-Canadian wife at our Stone Home deep inside the Cleveland National Forest.

Continuing...
