Subject: $ hit - How are you feeling?

No joke.

And please don't freak out, again.

What prevents you from you, yourself, sponsoring just3ants.com or helping Adam find corporate sponsorship?

For you and I to talk just takes time away from me explaining using infinite "black and white" written communications where nothing gets lost in the translation, why it is that not a single member of the bought and paid for media is willing to explain about all the monies created by the US Treasury-Federal Reserve going to Wall-47th street who trickle down today more than the ever the cost of the rich getting richer on to the backs of the poor who are not stupid just grotesquely misinformed, and not to the salaries of the US military doing all the brutal murdering.

Of course you haven't forgotten that the media know the instant someone such as yourself were to "stand tall" and explain that the oil companies in reaping such huge profits, again all part of the so hideously contrived recession-depression, don't pay their fair share of the insurance for transporting the oil over the high seas; i.e. mostly the United States Navy, all paid for once again by the poorest of the poor taxpayers not just in the U.S. but throughout the world.

On the other hand we do have your "black and white" emails, some 6 months before Client #9 filed his refreshing Class Action lawsuit against your megalopoly of AIG-Marsh & McLennan-ACE LTD that explains precisely all this and why you ended , "I need a drink . . .

Subject: WE [megalopoly] insure... Haliburton

my point the other day - that these people have been taken and treated as war combatants when there is no war - is totally against the constitution - which apparently doesn't exist anymore

BUT get this

I have now been given the project of trying to figure out our exposure for our overseas defense contractors we insure - thing is - the policy excludes 'acts of war' (as most do) - BUT - includes Terrorism ??

so.. .If a contractor dies from an act of war - we pay the widow and the gov't is supposed to reimburse us from their war chest

so now - the feds are saying - "there is no war" - and we don't get reimbursed - for all the dead, captured and "lost" contractors (and our loss numbers are showing lots more than the news is reporting)

so all the actuaries and underwriters are freakin out - watching their policy breach limits and bleed cash

so I got the order Sunday - go and figure out what KBR, Centcom and Haliberton employee exposure are and what they are doing to control their contract employees exposure ??

AND - this is a no win - If I pull the plug (write a report that says its a poor risk) my name goes to the head of KBR etc - If I say its all good - we loose money and megalopoly stomps on my tushy

aaagghhh

later boys

I need a drink

Ps – As much as I hate to miss the most awesome surf conditions; not to mention Marie as she walked to the front of studio cliff house mentioning how beautiful the surf looked, I need to take the Ducati ST4S to be checked out by Mat, the Ducati head engineer down at Ducati GT in downtown San Diego, following my dropping the other day of this most brilliantly engineered but most unforgiving super fast motorcycle.

I came up with a design for both the back and front of a just3ants.com t-shirt which I will drop off at Adam L. Tucker, have him scan it into his computer and email it to you for your thoughts and suggestions.

Marie thought of one design that simply had someone sitting on a toilet from a side angle and right below the toilet bowl, on the outside of course, the words, “$ hit list” [Sic]; and of course to “get it” one would have to go just3ants.com.

BTW what did you think of the email Marie sent The IT yesterday?

Also, By The Way, what did you think of the message left on my cell phone voice mail the other week by Ernest Slotar, De Beers’ diamond currency price fixer for the local Chicago, Illinois market, that like the ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report can only be found on just3ants.com?

Also, BTW, did you have trouble following my MEMO TO FBI FILE following ALT’s two phone conversations with FBI Special Agent Curran Thomerson.

Would you have any objection to when I call you to have Agent Thomerson on the line?

Do you think Agent Thomerson would agree that once you teach someone everything you know especially about the business of “money creation” which is the focus of attention of my forthcoming book, The History of Money Creation and its Future!, then you have nothing more to teach?

Do you “get it” when I say that neither the Mossad nor the entire Israel Defense Force need pay a single penny for either their intelligence or weapons systems and the decision by the FBI to now go public and investigate that ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report which has been vetted by both the Mossad and IMI and why people with even the slightest bit of intelligence; i.e. tuned in to my missives, mostly voyeurs to boot, are so deafeningly silent on this so very important subject?

How big do you think the elephant is between Jackie Down and her boss, my cousin Mark Gevisser, the author-investigative journalist of my uncle David Gevisser, the American head of the De Beers-Anglo American Cartel?

How big is the elephant between you and your children and please compare to how big you think it is when compared to the elephant between The IT and his "tTOo" [sic] children, everyone increasingly thinking about the ever exponentially increasing "footprint" I have on the Internet and so far not a single member of the bought and paid for media has the courage to even mention my name despite such very easy to understand "back and forths" between myself and them beginning with this latest series with Joe Carroll of Bloomberg news who you might want to add to your email list?
