Subject: RACIAL LIBERALS - American Eagle

Tony – you and I need to talk about this tribute you gave Harry Oppenheimer where you referred to him as “first and foremost, a non-racial liberal”.

It had to have got those other racial liberals upset?

Are you thinking about becoming vege~~ta~~rian?

Dear Ms. Blair,

Furthermore, as you may have gathered, I am quite “under the gun”.

So I was just thinking that maybe one of the partners in the firm would know of a real “tiger” of a gal, a hot shot legal eagle just out of college, wanting to start her own practice and come out of the starting gates just blowing away her competition and in no time at all, possibly before the world ends, have tucked under her belt one most extraordinary “win” given how I, someone who didn’t get off a boat just yesterday in Haifa Harbor Israel, have done pretty much all the “spade work” – just thinking who I could count on to dig my grave – no strike that, leg work.

A very long time friend of mine Don Barr who a few years ago handed back his license to practice law since he was so utterly disgusted with the profession, is exactly the sort of person I am looking for.

Don, while still in his 20s back in 1960 received a US$1 million fee following earning for his client, a defense contractor, a sum of US$20 million which didn't come exactly easy since Don, just out of law school, but practicing on his own, decided to take the case on a contingency and the lawyers on the other side were having a grand old time spending their clients money like there was no tomorrow – BTW, their clients were the United States of America's Defense Department – as they had Don brown bagging his lunch going from one court to the circuit court and back again and again and again eventually ending up in the US Supreme Court of the United States, can you believe it!

And to top it off Supreme Court Justice Earl Warren calls Don into his chamber, hands him a personal note and says, "I want you to give this to your father". Don, not one to "give lip" and besides Earl had just ruled in his favor, opens the note and see's Justice's Warren's telephone number which of course Don doesn't recognize since Don was only familiar with the Chief Justice's home telephone number in California, the same with Richard, who Don had to call up, also at home in order for Vice President Nixon to write a rider into the law to make sure that Don got paid his US$1 million, since you know winning is losing big time if you don't collect especially from the US Government; and to top it off, Don's client who was obviously happy with Don's performance since they had already pretty much closed shop given how the Defense Department had screwed them big time, were very happy to pay Don the agreed upon fee of US$3 million which wasn't exactly "chicken feed" back in 1960, chomp change, however, compared to the "Money Power" of De Beers and Co. which I think you can tell is what I am driving at in this lawsuit, hence the "thank you, but no thank you", but the Judge in one of our State's Appeal Courts who finally got it right, told Don in a packed courtroom that over his dead body was he going to pay some snotty nosed Jewish kid a sum of money that he as a big time judge, sworn to protect De Beers and Co. from having to abide by our sacrosanct Anti-Trust/Anti-Monopolies/Anti-Competition/Anti-Free Trade/Anti-Price Fixing/Anti-Democracy/Anti-Republic/Anti-South African Apartheid Regime, wouldn't earn in a lifetime.

Notice how difficult it is to know who is "friend" and who is "foe" when you have the Price Fixers of Price Fixers interfering with the market to the point that you not only don't know what is "up" or "down" but knowing this "house of cards" cannot stay up for much longer as free market advocates such as me provide the knowledge-Information-Light which is at the cornerstone of "Free and Fair Trade" that the more you think about doesn't require any middle-meddling men, certainly not those pushing pencils?

It is information that keeps the have-nots from getting at the haves, and the internet seems to be very much on the side of the have-nots, given how for starters those that have also are the first to have internet connections and of course the fastest which as you can now see works very much against them as they have all these disclosure laws to support what they knew and when did they know it which when combined with the knowledge we all have that none of us knows exactly when who is getting what information and when drives those sitting in the pounds seats stark raving nuts.

Now think about all that gold taken out of my hand luggage that American Airlines have all but confirmed they took, not to mention that I have somewhere an sealed envelope containing the gold they say they found which was of course a small fraction of the gold they placed in of course their "unzipped bag" since how else could they have put my gold into their bag if it was zipped as was mine as was all the other hand luggage in the hold of the commuter plane that baggage handlers working commuter planes have all the time in the world to unzip, look inside, make themselves a sandwich, smoke a joint, crack a joke, swallow the gold, all in the shade of the hold of the plane. Aren't you surprised they didn't ask me to provide a strainer?

BTW what did you think of the photos from the other evening celebrating Sebastian Capella's most beautiful, most fun portrait of Dave's mother, father and fellow litigator contained in this email?

I am taking the liberty given the limited amount of time I have remaining this evening as I plan to welcome in the sunset on my wave ski, to copy a few folks including Don Barr who gets his one daughter every couple of months or so to check his email account, and to see if they might be able to undertake such a wildly exciting lawsuit.

By The Way, you may recall me mentioning in one or more of my heavily broadcasted communiqués of my pulling “to-get-her” [sic] the financing to pay for a lawsuit against Westinghouse who owned CBS-60 Minutes at the time, and in no time to speak of we not only won a US$1 million cash settlement but got Westinghouse to return the proprietary top secret laser switching technology that they had stolen from this one Israeli physicist; moreover, to the best of my knowledge Ami Ayalon, former Admiral of the brutal Israel Navy and Commanding Officer of Flotilla 13, Israel's most fearsome Maritime Special Forces unit, was not in on this operation.

I can now hear screams coming from surfers, helping letting me know the “serfs up”.

Come join rEVOLUTION!

Mr. Gevisser, your email was undeliverable due to the address you used for Mr. Casey. His name is spelled with one "s" not two. Our server only forwarded it to our office administrator today, and then routed to me.

We welcome all inquiries, and appreciate your communication.

While I will take your email to Mr. Casey for his advice, I will let you know that the subject matter of your email is far outside the area of his practice.

We will be back in touch within a few days.

Sincerely,

Linda Blair
