Tokyo Sexwale – Black South African businessman-politician yet to comment on his knowledge of the CIA's joint venture with British Intelligence to develop and execute during the South African Apartheid Regime's most brutally repressive 45 odd year rule over Black South Africans like himself, mostly dirt poor, the most macabre biological weapons programme, the rather transparent "deniability" resting on the shoulders of the Apartheid Regime's Defense-Force who also like Robert Michael Gates et al have yet to comment let alone be subpoenaed for deposition by the likes of Mr. Jeffrey R. Krinsk and Co. who of course could do better but who ask "why" when the masses appear to be quite happy with both the "status quo" and De Beers who set the price of their counterfeit currency including diamond tipped drilling bits at more than a barrel of oil as the allocator of the world's resources, and the proof for their arguments can be found when all is said and done with the fact that America's poor are willing to be paid peanuts to join the economic draft and moreover willing to commit the most macabre atrocities when murdering innocent civilians who have survived the brutality of the regimes of our tyrants strategically placed just outside of US military bases on some 130 of the world's 190 countries that to the best of my knowledge do not include either China or Israel, the world's number one and two military powers respectively, and I would know.

Helen Zille, Leader of South Africa's Democratic Alliance Party, MIA – Missing In Action

Tony "Nonracial Liberal" Leon, former Leader of South Africa's Democratic Alliance Party – Missing In Action – MIA

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Do you think once you know for a fact that the Allied battle plans for D-Day June 5th-6th 1944 were in the hands of the De Beers' Nazi Germany that it is important whether we debate the importance of whether it is "Black hands cannot lay white eggs" or more likely "Black hens cannot lay white eggs"?

Better yet, why bother even thinking about the ingenious Israeli Military Intelligence report that is so very shocking to the lazy ruling elite that instead of addressing it, they hope to convince the masses it makes sense to vilify the Peoples Republic of Communist China who for very good reason feature so very prominently in this one most extraordinary Military Report of all time that was devised by the most brilliant minds that plays night and day on the subconscious of each one of us until our very last moment before meeting our most smart and vengeful maker.

The English language ripped out of the Latin, one of the spiritual languages like Hebrew, Aramaic, Arabic, Greek and French, by Roman politicians hell bent on confusing the masses, still contains vestiges of "spirituality" and no language as "error free" and "blindly precise", nothing in the least bit subjective, absolutely totally unemotional, as the language of math followed immediately by the language of art, specifically the lost art of classical oil painting, in favor of "modern art monies" that like modern art contain no gauge but whose value is determined by the "money power-me" generation who I know you will agree have little or no taste, which still doesn't prevent them currently having their bought and paid for critics promote and help price worthless-fictitious modern art that only complete idiots would consider more than very poor curtain-like decor.

And again, I would know not simply because my highly literate "mommy", Zena Rosland Ash Gevisser, told me so.

Not to mention yet again it is quite obvious to anyone with just the least amount of common sense that the math language so mindful which is why Einstein, the genius of geniuses, referred to his and Marc Grossman's math equation, "To see mE" [sic] in "reverse" as the, "Mind of God" given again the absolute precision of  $E=mc^2$  to the power of "tTOo" [sic].

To mention little of how easy the words came out of Hitler's mouth, "The great masses will more likely fall victim to a big lie than a small lie".

To mention in passing how the most brainwashed of all the peoples of the world, United States of American Roman Catholics who morphed from the sumptuous Romans, bought hook, line and sinker into, "Jesus loves me so, this I know because Mommy told me so!"

So much though for my most outrageous of outrageous hypocritical Jewish people who have failed to stand tall against the most anti-Semitic De Beers-Anglo American Cartel and yet us Jewish people who are taught from the youngest of age to question, never when walking into a real estate rich Roman Catholic cathedral and seeing our Orthodox Jewish brother oozing blood from all orifices to not have got down on our hands and knees and begged God for taking so long to call, the corrupt Roman Catholic priesthood beginning with the murderous Popes to task, for poking fun at our Lord Orthodox Jewish Jesus Christ who was born orthodox Jewish, lived the life of an Orthodox Jewish person, got killed brutally like any other commoner for taking on the corrupt Jewish priesthood who sold out to big Jewish-Roman-American-British business interests.

Most Roman Catholics are also only Roman Catholic when it suits them.

Mr. President, trust me, the Mossad are not "standing still" at this time, nor could they care less about my mother's pogrom orphaned mother born in the same shtetl-tiny village as David Ben Gurion, Plonsk White Russia-Poland, nor are they in the least bit interested in which corrupt priesthood is going to have the final say when they know for a fact us Jewish people have the Bible on our side and the Arabs have the oil which makes for one great chidach-marriage.

I kid you not, the best marriages are "marriages of conveniences" [sic], just look at the great marriage of my two Jewish parents who don't look in the least bit Jewish that lasted some 3 full decades and when it came time for the two of them to "go their separate ways", the rabbi who gave them the Jewish divorce known as a "get" told them both, "Most people get married for the same reasons you are getting divorced", or so my mommy said.

My parents loved one another more than words could describe but there were certain things "left in the hands of God" which us Jewish people know it is only right that we spell "G-d" given how the Almighty is "amorphous" to us, requiring us to use all our imaginations to figure out the "puzzle of life" which is really not hard, once you know like I do, how to think.

Those who don't know talk. Those who know mostly don't talk and when they do, they always have something important to say.

Both my parents and I as well as my 3 elder siblings are still very much alive although any day now my father's non-kosher pig valve as well as my mother's egg shell arteries could give out without a moment's notice and the sadness that I will feel will not come close to the loss my French-Canadian wife and I still feel for our so very missed Pypeetoe who quite frankly played an important hand along with G-d, of course, in limiting our sex life, a subject matter my Royal Mater-Mother Zena covered in her book, THE WINKING CAT.

When you figure out that a teacher like Mr. Trupe whose only mandate is to teach the truth to young, impressionable and defenseless high school children, especially young women so easily charmed by good looks, tall muscular body, decides for the first time in his now very public life to put on blinkers, it is time for the masses to rise and celebrate big time.

Back on April 2nd, I believe it was, I met for the first time a going on 90-year young, most beautiful singer who along with her esteemed solicitor husband had their most extraordinarily beautiful so awesomely composed portrait painted by so very much "on top of his game", so very handsome and athletic going on 81 year very young Spanish master painter Sebastian Capella back in 1991, although the very tiny photo that Sebastian used was taken many years prior as Alberta Casey and her husband as well as colleague solicitor put on their white wigs and pose holding a glass of whiskey with a burning cigarette all in the same hand; and obviously Sebastian had a lot of fun painting this one-of-a-kind portrait of very happy people who may not have been as tall as they appear.

Alberta promised to send me via snail mail a rendering of her singing her "wish for world peace" all sung in Esperanto the universal "Second Language" that started in Poland but failed to take hold given how the "money people" were able to shove aside the wishes of the intellectuals as well as the poor who both saw the extraordinary value of this easy but most mindful language that the one son of my great maternal grandmother, Nechie Badash was one of Esperanto's pioneers, or so that is what my Royal Mater-Mother told me so.

Not to mention my "born to perform", constantly "planting seeds" mother, loathe to repeat, was born in 1929, the same year the Anglo South African "racial liberal" Oppenheimer family gained control of De Beers, the price fixer of price fixers that was founded at the turn of the last century by bankers J.P. Morgan-Rockefeller-Chase who also with of course approval by the 3 Branches of the US Government, aware of De Beers being the most flagrant violators of our sacrosanct Anti-Trust/Anti-Competition/Anti-Price Fixing laws, financed the American led 8 Allied Nations invasion of China in 1900 as well as the most savage Cecil Rhodes-De Beers-American Anglo Boer War of 1899-1902.

I could very easily end this communiqué at this point given how I have already said and explained in very simple English everything that needs to be said with absolutely nothing left unsaid, but for most not so fortunate as me, I must surely explain more.

Mr. Trupe and all those members of the faculty of Torrey Pines High School, Del Mar, California who have decided to go along with what may have been Mr. Trupe's unilateral decision to "ban" me, someone who is only pointing out the most important truths of the day beginning with how the two De Beers' retail-wholesale diamond-money laundering stores in downtown heavily real estate and city council corrupt Del Mar, force small incorruptible business people who cannot afford the rigged rental market to leave town to go to poor areas and compete against the already dirty poor, all part of the process of ethnic cleansing civil wars, a euphemistic way of avoiding calling such atrocities "genocides", must now and forever feel the ever tightening pinch of the masses starting to rise and knowing that no matter what, they mustn't allow anyone or any group into their midst who advocate violence thus playing directly into the hands of Mr. Trupe and Co.

Mr. Trupe, so very cocky, believed that when he first replied to me that there wouldn't be anyone in this world who had quite his worldly curriculum vitae and imp/oded when I responded with the hard facts of how I come about having firsthand knowledge of De Beers' so easy ability to fund their opposition not just in filthy rich areas like Del Mar but throughout the world, constantly and methodically driving a wedge between the have and have-nots by placing easy to corrupt, so full of themselves gutless jocks like Mr. Trupe as their first and last line of defense-offense.

The crooks are continuing to go down this Sabbath Day.

There is no rest for the wicked whose great numbers but small relative to all the good that is out there keeping the system in always perfect balance, can be found on my one-of-a-kind email list that continues to represent a statistically valid sampling of the world's literate and crooked human population.

Now we must all, good, bad and indifferent who are the worst and now easy as pie to spotlight, just look at the "$ hit list" [sic] on just3ants.com, and then focus on what Hilary Clinton had to say in her most recent speech where towards the end this non-athlete of non-athlete fatsos called on you, Mr. President, to boycott the opening ceremonies of the Olympic Games this summer in Beijing, China.

Ms. Clinton said a lot in a speech that if read in German would bring chills up the spines of all Jewish independent thinkers throughout the world beginning with the best of the best Israeli Special Forces Commanding Officers and their commandos who trust me are paying just like Israeli Military Intelligence as well as the Mossad the most very careful attention to what I have to say at this very hour.

The rhetoric against China is, however, laughable but not if you have bought in hook, line and sinker to the Nazism of Ms. Clinton who made a name for herself leveraging the bad behavior of her husband who fell asleep at the wheel while the Chinese who do not sleep, ate him up for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

At the same time, Mr. President you made a very big mistake in not providing the President of China with a formal State Dinner when Mr. Hau visited the White House not all that long ago. So just do the right thing and ask for forgiveness.

Much more importantly, Ms. Clinton's speech was all about war and missile technology talk, something she doesn't have the first clue about, the same with both her opponents, the dummy McCain and Obama whose CV I would still like to see.

When not campaigning to campaign do you think they ever look in the mirror, when naked of course, what else now can they think about other than how it is possible for this "dog values" former First Lady not able to help herself from boldly stating, not suggesting, that China is manipulating the currency markets.

Here is a 3rd rate lawyer-liar discussing the "tricky" business of currency trading which again she only knows from making a US$100,000 "killing" on commodity trades when investing the sum of US$10,000 which wasn't exactly "chomp change" to her and her very dumb lawyer-liar husband, both of them incapable of reading financial statements let alone barely making a living when practicing law in the rather poverty stricken, "poverty of thought" State of Arkansas that features prominently in both The Diamond Invention and the shipment of drugs into the U.S.

Mr. President, Ms. Clinton just provided all her adversaries with her as well their political careers', "death nail".

It is simply not possible for anyone apart from the United States Treasury and US Federal Reserve both under the command and control of the De Beers and Co. bankers from the turn of the last century, to manipulate a single currency.

Mr. President, I am not the only person in the world who knows this absolute fact of life.

There is nothing to stop you, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Chairman of the Federal Reserve and of course the United States Congress from simply devaluing the currency of the U.S. Dollar instead of making out that China is the "bad guy" because they haven't yet revalued their currency which would amount to the same thing as the United States Government devaluing the U.S. Dollar, and in the very next instant the United States of America would become impoverished as we would be totally priced out of the world oil market.

This is not a difficult concept for even the most brainwashed US American to get their arms around no matter how obese, no matter how far their dementia has set in unless of course they are foolish enough to have joined the so hideous, so insensitive US military "economic draft".

This draft business is all that should be discussed once understanding the nonsense of suggesting that China is controlling the entire 3 Branches of the US Government.

Let me know tell you very quickly about the delightful surprise I encountered last evening as I headed out for quick jog before taking an ever quick dip in the most awesomely refreshing Pacific Ocean.

Out of nowhere, I was surrounded by millions of the most beautiful butterflies that appeared to have suddenly emerged just to greet me, and each person I met along the ever narrowing bluffs of Del Mar, felt exactly the same way.

We have now had more than 3 weeks of the most beautiful colored flowers I have ever seen in these parts and I have been living on and off in this part of southern California ever since I returned from South Africa back in early 1981 having only partially recovered from the DAAC having poisoned my liver after I had simply asked too many poignant questions of Mr. Martin Rapaport of the Rapaport Report, a price sheet that establish the pricing of everything under the sun including the price of real estate here in Del Mar.

Not to mention just earlier this afternoon a young good looking couple got engaged right in front of our studio cliff house and I was able to catch their celebration hug on my cell phone camera just after the girl who looked in her early twenties, her violet flowing dress matching perfectly the blooming purple flowers, accepted.

Isn't nature perfect, from which it is so very easy to follow the Almighty's example.

One does not need to mention more than the two words, "Diamond Currency" to stop all conversations apart from art which few know the first thing about and then finally sex which so few of us even very fit enjoy 24/7.

George Lichter is a name only very meaningful to a very small number of people today but when you read about both my parents' close Jewish American Fighter-Bomber-Pilot-Trainer friend so you would understand why it was so strange to me, at least at first, when I took so very ill soon after joining De Beers' Codiam Inc. located on 47th Street, Manhattan, New York City, De Beers' money laundering and intelligence gathering capital of the world, that my Royal Mother, in particular didn't have me "check in" with George who like their close friend Boris Senior, like George Lichter were heroes of the Israel Air Force during Israel's most extraordinary in every sense of the word, War of Independence [1947-1949].

George was by this time divorced from Ishka who he had met in the Czechoslovakia when he was training Jewish fighter-pilots on Messerschmitts to then fly over to Israel breaking the US Government arms blockade; not to mention very beautiful Ishka was living in the cutest of homes right on the water in either Greenwich or Bridgeport Connecticut, cannot recall exactly which.

At any rate, I thought, again at first, that George was simply too preoccupied to be bothered with my "little hiccup" given how each and every afternoon he had a date with his "girlfriend" which my Royal Mater made a point of telling me was a high priced "hooker".

Many years later when I had finally recovered we all met in this very blonde "hooker's" apartment, we that is, me, my mother, my father and my mother's second husband, big time fund raiser for Israel, Durban, South African and Petersburg born, Alan Zulman.

Now of course everyone in the Gevisser family worth talking about as well as the Zulman family including Roy "Marc trading with the enemy Rich" Essakow know that Alan Zulman was not born in Pietersburg where I believe there is a South African Air Force base where my eldest brother Neil who massaged your father when he was Vice President, hence the Vice Presidential cufflinks Neil still most likely has, spent most if not all of his 9 months compulsory military service in the Valhalla military prison, in solitary confinement for having knocked out cold an officer who was picking on a Black South African crook.

A blow from my eldest brother can do much more damage than knock the wind out of one's lungs and just earlier I spoke with a former member of Israel's most brutal Flotilla 13 Special Forces Unit who still most probably recalls the day when a straggler walking along the beach in Malibu decided to enter the beach property of Bruce Willis and Demi Moore where this Flotilla 13 member was in charge of security and Neil was both their in-house master chef and masseur.

Most people who know the first thing about Guy Friedman would say he is still while no taller than me, possibly these days even shorter, never have I been one to pay any attention to height, mostly arm, hand and leg speed; i.e. the quick muscle reflexes, the strongest person in the world, not pound for pound, but bar none; although it is possible that my very strong and athletic French-Canadian wife who knows Guy as well as my eldest brother well, would choose me if she had a choice in who best to defend her given how she still believes I could talk my out of a street fight and if not at least talk long enough for her to make a "clean escape".

Mr. President, lets now talk about the US Navy's "payback" for their Commanding Officers providing Ben Gurion with the necessary intelligence to route the Arab armies as they began to move on Israeli positions.

BTW let me know if you would like to hear more about the butterflies that are still out and about on this most glorious sunshine filled day.

By The Way, the reason I have time on my hands right now is because I am waiting for winds in Pine Valley where we have our Stone Home, to die down before heading out on my superfast Ducati ST4S to join Marie Dion Gevisser for a sunset walk, followed by a delicious, healthy gourmet vegetarian meal, and very excellent wine, of course.

Just brilliant is the only way to describe Mossad agents having Israeli Special Forces commandos in their first operation looking like they are battling to find the courage to shoot let alone shoot straight when some 4 feet away from their target soon after the opening scenes in Spielberg's epic 2005 movie MUNIch where it looks like Golda Meir, Prime Minister of Israel at the time of the 1972 Munich Olympic massacres, is trying to feel up her former bodyguard now about to be the leader of a Mossad hit squad who looks like he may not have remembered as well as he should when having sex with Golda who as Ben Gurion said was the only person with balls in the entire Israeli Knesset.

By The Way do you think I was trying to be funny when suggesting that you take Floradix, Floravital Iron + Herbs supplement every day would improve your vegetarian sex life.

Lifestyles for the rich and famous never turned me on either.

You Mr. President are a man of my likening and the first time I ever thought really highly of you was when your first Secretary of the Treasury O'Neal back I believe it was in either late 2003 or early 2004 along with Leslie Stahl of 60 Minutes having the grandest of times poking fun at you because Paulson's predecessor was saying that you were lost for words as he conducted a monologue of the condition of the US Treasury.

I have said time and again that you are not only very brilliant, perhaps not able to read a financial statement as well as me, but most likely the greatest President in the sordid history of the United States and a great chunk of the proof is the fact that your approval rating is less than one third of the US population and quite frankly I would think more highly of you if it was closer to 1% given how very dumb are US Americans; again to spell it all out, such a low rating would be proof positive to me that you are at least as intelligent as me who few would argue that I am dumb, far from it?

Again, just look at this apparently so very hot looking, hunk of a 6 and half or so foot Mr. "Troop" [sic]

Apparently he is closer to half my age than he is to my age and I doubt very much you would back this nincompoop of nincompoops in a simple street fight with me assuming first of all that he isn't as fit as me while chasing around the women's volley ball team or that his EKG reading is just a little worse than mine when not only I thought, but the attending physician seemed quite convinced I was having a heart attack even before administering the EKG that then had alarm bells going off in the head of my math-wizard so very brilliant and so most precious, so mouthwateringly sexy, and let me just mention caring French-Canadian wife seated in a chair to my left and below, her legs spread just ever so slightly as she mostly mouthed but enough of her so very exotic French accented words reached me, "Caching, Caching" that had the attending physician who had kept her mild carefree so pleasing disposition so well up to that point seeing red, the fire burning inside her that along with my wife so cool under fire, that of course by the time the EKG machine arrived it looked like I needed a heart transplant.

My wife, Mr. President may be trying to kill, but I doubt it.

First of all there are others out there with more of a motive, agree?

Most people "get it".

But some are not quite sure and feel the need to ask but usually in a roundabout way, "What is he selling?"

The truth is just not as cracked up as it used to be despite all the labeling and Truth In Advertising laws.

And the instant you hear the word law once familiar with my sex-brain-lifestyle you think.

Economics, politics, and history, all explained in my forthcoming book, The History of Money Creation and Its Future!

Mr. Trupe is doing nothing than playing his part in teeing us up brilliantly with his colleagues not all whom may be comfortable with being the pawns of the ruling elite giving the poor too busy trying to get through each day a false sense of security that he is out there so vocal fighting their fight, while the kids of privilege laugh along with their parents all the way to the bank.

This Trust-Hush-Fund-economic draft business very much "black and white".

So back we come to the anything but "farfetched" swastika US Navy building on Coronado Island built in 1967-1970 which still remains standing.

Forward we go to the leader of the Nazi Germany Kennedy clan, Senator Ted Kennedy standing on March 2nd 1971 at the graveside of American Charles Engelhard, a Nazi sympathizer and "open supporter" of the US Government's South African Apartheid Regime.

Not to mention yet again, Engelhard was not only a close family friend of the Kennedys as well as the Johnson family which is why former President Lyndon Johnson and Vice President Humphrey stood alongside Senator Ted Kennedy at St. Mary's Abby Church, Morris Town, two words, New Jersey, again just 5 odd months before Engelhard's fabulously mineral rich estate skyrocketed as the US Government led the world using their superior and overwhelming military force, off the Gold Standard on August 15th, 1971, Engelhard was very much alive and did more than finance and rig the 1960 Presidential election as he was the person who "arranged" the extraordinary meeting at the Carlyle Hotel on the upper east end of Manhattan between President elect John F. Kennedy and Engelhard's Anglo South African partner, Harry Oppenheimer.

BTW, do you think South African Liberal Democrat Tony Leon's use of the word "non-racial liberal!" first and foremost in describing virulent anti-Semite, racist of racist Harry Oppenheimer, had to have got those other racial liberals upset?

You would agree Senator Ted Kennedy has been petrified ever since the assassination in particular of his brother Attorney General of the United States, Senator Robert F. Kennedy back in June 1968 less than 5 odd months before his sister-in-law Jacqueline Kennedy married on October 20th, 1968 De Beers' operative Aristotle Onassis who provided not only the entire Kennedy clan but all the intelligence services including the CIA and the Mossad with the clearest of money trails between himself and Sirhan Sirhan and a Los Angeles based psychiatrist.

Mr. President, you would know that the CIA's joint biological weapons programme with De Beers' South African Apartheid Regime didn't only include poisons to kill.

Mr. President, you are still the President of the United States and Commander In Chief to not only call for the release of those STORED CD ROMS containing "sum" [sic] of the details of this macabre, so sinister weapons programme first used on Black South African opponents of De Beers and Co. but to convene "open hearings" on the Capital beginning with allowing me to question each Presidential candidate now running for President as well as each member of the United States Congress as well as United States Supreme Court members including the Chief Justice and to begin by asking them who knew what and when about the CIA's involvement with the South African Apartheid Regime going back to the turn of the last century.

Senator Ted Kennedy and the likes of Mr. Trupe and Co. are of course mostly suffering from deficit needs which as you know are much worse than suffering from not having one's basic needs met since one can never fill adequately one's "wants".

No matter how much you leave in your will for co-opted-corrupted children it is never enough, and this fact of life is also easily understood by the poor who are not stupid and increasingly less poorly misinformed thanks to me-we.

Yes, all eyes should be on Mr. Trupe who may still only be thinking about him, why are we attacking this poor's man profession, before asking any questions, whether it be of me or say Mr. Krinsk who still stands,,, ready to take "troop's" [sic] phone call or email.

Most people with deficit needs have mostly property and money that could go at any moment and you are left with your actions and inactions.

Yes, what a phrase by my one time close friend Tony Leon, "nonracial liberal".

Can you imagine what it would be like if you allowed me to turn the tables on those scoundrel members of the United States Congress beginning with Senator Hilary Clinton, talking about US Americans "rolling up our sleeves" and actually working for a living?

Nothing would disgust me more apart from seeing her fatso tochas in the nude than to see all the fat hanging from those fatso arms, and those God awful thighs.

Mr. President, I just had my eyes closed as I was typing away and felt the need to quickly open them up and look out at the blue as blue sea and to see as far as the eye can and at the same time send my best greetings to the increasingly free and prosperous Chinese who you and I as well as Israeli Military Intelligence and the Mossad and for that matter anyone with a particle of a brain in their head knows needs the United States of America like a "hole in the head", another of my Royal Mater's favorite expressions.

It is extraordinarily important the explanation I gave just yesterday behind the brute force exacted on the "defenseless" USS Liberty on June 8th, 1967, a year prior to RFK's assassination.

A US spy ship just watching, but not taking action, just there as spectators, watching from a safe distance, like a sport and then "sum" [sic].

Again, you notice that the Mossad who have no problem both "setting up" traitor Jewish people as well as killing them, hasn't contacted me to let me know to stay put and await one of their bullets fired from well over a mile offshore leaving behind a tennis ball size hole between my ears; and not for a minute do the members of their brutally efficient assassinations unit hesitate let alone not very accomplished in the use of the most sophisticated killing weapons; moreover never having to pay either for their weapons systems or intelligence given their unfettered access to both Diamond Currency and any other "means of exchange", no different to the DAAC and their supporters whose only interest is the pursuit of no fair and free trade agreements.

Look at the arrogance not so much of our civilian and religious leadership but first and foremost our teachers especially those such as "Liars" [sic Trupe who drum on their pushed out chests, most of the time their fat bellies create this camel like effect, so demonstrative that they are the ones to take on the "status quo", the so-called "corrupt establishment", when "back at the ranch" they are all talk, no action, just plotting their next defenseless and young victim while so very supportive of the "status quo".

Look how many distractions s the lazy rich have while the poor are kept busy trying to make it through each day.

Yes it is shameful.

And no there is nothing the lazy rich can do right now than wallow in their misery.

On that note take another look at our one rich Wall Street trading neighbor drinking last evening at sunset a top quality French burgundy and a Cuban cigar, "both" he felt the need to let me are, "illegal".
